Parcel Post for Expeditionary Forces!

Attention of the public is drawn to the very strictness of observing the regulations of this Department from time to time despatch of parcels to members of the Expeditionary Forces and the following particulars should be observed:

Parcels must not exceed eleven pounds. Parcels should be addressed with the Regimental number, rank, name and surname of the recipient, followed by the last known address of the Unit with which the individual is serving; for example:

0978 Cpl. John J. Kent,
 2nd Battalion
 The Royal Newfoundland Regt.,
 Hazley Down Camp,
 Winchester,
 Hant's Camp,
 England.

Parcels should bear the name and address of the addressee to whom the parcel may be delivered or forwarded, if it should prove impossible to deliver to the first. The Original address should be written on the FRONT of the parcel where the postage stamps and the declaration are affixed, and the secondary alternative address should be written on the BACK of the parcel.

Second address is not furnished at the time of posting and delivery cannot be effected. Contents of the parcel, unless of exceptional value or of a personal nature, will be turned over to the Military Authorities for distribution.

Parcels containing articles of personal nature of special value will be returned if not for their return, in case of non-delivery, is made by the sender, such request should be written on the cover of the parcel at the time of posting.

Procedure outlined in (4) and (5) is modified at the suggestion of the British Post Office to prevent the waste of a large quantity of perishable food stuffs which form the contents of 90 per cent. of parcels sent to the Expeditionary Forces.

Parcels should be packed securely.

Attention is drawn to the Notice concerning Christmas parcels recently published by the Postmaster General. All Christmas mail for the Expeditionary Forces should be posted in time to arrive at the Expeditionary Forces, London, not later than the end of November.

Revolutions in Austria-Hungary---German-Austrian (?) Government Formed---Is it Another Berlin Plot?---Ex Premier of Hungary Assassinated--- Allied Victories on Western and Italian Fronts.

REVOLUTION IN HUNGARY.
 COPENHAGEN, Nov. 1. A successful revolution has taken place in Budapest and the Hungarian National Council has taken over the government, according to a message received by Count Michael Karolyi to the Berlin Tageblatt. The message reads: "The revolution in Budapest and National Council took over government. The National Council completely. Inhabitants rejoicing." (Signed) Karolyi, President National Council.

RIOTING IN BUDAPEST.
 BERNE, Oct. 31. The Berlin Vossische Zeitung prints a despatch from Budapest saying that a riot broke out in the city. The rioters stormed the military prison and released political and military prisoners. Revolutionary troops seized the eastern railroad terminals and the train cars which were to start for the front. The soldiers in these cars joined the insurgents, who had machine guns and enormous quantities of arms and ammunition and captured the arsenals.

public. Mayor Weiskirch vainly tried to get a hearing but he was greeted with hisses. Meanwhile the National Assembly has the legislative power while the State Council and the State Government share the Executive powers. It was planned to name a new government Wednesday night.

NEW GOVT. OF GERMAN-AUSTRIA.
 AMSTERDAM, Nov. 1. The German Austrian State Council has issued a proclamation, according to a despatch from Vienna, announcing that it has assumed the government of German-Austria and that it will conclude peace in accord with the German empire.

GERMANY RECOGNIZES PRAGUE COUNCIL.
 AMSTERDAM, Nov. 1. Germany, according to an announcement made in the Weger Gazette, has recognized the Prague General National Council and has ordered Consul Getshattel to make the necessary declaration in behalf of the Berlin government.

TISZA ASSASSINATED.
 COPENHAGEN, Nov. 1. Count Tisza, the former Hungarian Premier, has been killed by a soldier, according to a Budapest telegram today.

BRITISH RESUME OFFENSIVE.
 LONDON, Nov. 1. The British troops resumed the offensive south of Valenciennes this morning. Field Marshal Haig in his report to-day says. Good progress is being made. British troops in minor enterprises near Le Quesnoy, Thursday, captured a number of prisoners.

GOOD PROGRESS MADE.
 LONDON, Nov. 1. (By the A.P.)—Field Marshal Haig's forces made good progress in their attack this morning in the region of Valenciennes. That city is reported to be surrounded on three sides. Fifteen hundred prisoners were taken by the British this morning.

AMERICANS WIN SUCCESS.
 WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES NORTH WEST OF VERDUN, Nov. 1. General Pershing's forces attacked the German position on this front today. At least a dozen villages were captured. More than 3,000 prisoners were taken. Soon after noon the American troops had passed Amecourt and Bayonville. The Americans stormed Audevanne and cleared the Bois-des-Loges where they encountered the most serious opposition of the day. The lines at 6 o'clock this evening extended through the northern part of the Bois-des-Loges to the eastward, and then well north of Aincreville and Clery-le-Grand. Most of the villages captured had been forfeited by the Germans.

IMPOSSIBLE TO COUNT PRISONERS.
 WASHINGTON, Nov. 1. Official Rome despatches to-day describing the victorious sweep of Italian and Allied armies that are demolishing the Austrian front, say the lines are moving forward in such great leaps that it is no longer possible to identify towns retaken or to count prisoners and guns captured or Italians liberated.

EVIDENCE OF AUSTRIAN BARBARITY.
 ROME, Nov. 1. The number of prisoners taken by the Allied forces in their drive against the Austro-Hungarians in Northern Italy is steadily increasing. More than 700 guns have been captured. Immense booty has been taken. As the Italian army prosecutes its victorious advance, says the despatch, most deplorable evidence is coming to light of atrocities by the enemy during the period of invasion. In Italy as in France the fury of the barbarians has been intense against things and persons. Such fury has been witnessed not only by Italian soldiers but by representatives of Italian and Allied press agents accompanying the advancing columns.

BRITISH PROGRESS ON ITALIAN FRONT.
 LONDON, Nov. 1. The British troops on the Italian front have occupied the town of Scille on the Livenna River, fifteen miles east of the Piave, the war office announced. The enemy is falling back rapidly in the Grappa sector.

CAPTURE OF PRISONERS.
 LONDON, Nov. 1. In the past three months the British forces in France have taken 172,659 prisoners and 2,275 guns from the Germans, according to an official communication received from Field Marshal Haig to-night. During the month of October the British forces in France captured 49,000 prisoners and 925 guns.

DIAS HAS ALLIED TERMS.
 ROME, Nov. 1. It is understood that the terms of the Allied nations for an armistice are now in the hands of General Diaz, the Italian Commander-in-Chief. General Diaz handed the armistice terms to the Austrian commander to-day, according to the Evening Star. Terms of the armistice, the newspaper adds, will be published to-morrow.

ARMISTICE TERMS STRICTLY MILITARY.
 PARIS, Nov. 1. (By the A.P.)—The armistice terms to be submitted to Germany will be confined strictly to military requirements, except that it will be brought out clearly that they are conditioned generally upon President Wilson's principles with some modifications.

GERMAN PRESS COMMENT.
 COPENHAGEN, Oct. 31. (By the A.P.)—The Hamburg Fremdenblatt prints a Berlin despatch which asserts that Germany with or without Allies will not permit herself "to be handled as Bulgaria was handled." Eugene Zimmermann in the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger condemns what he calls the government's too ready acceptance of American progressive demands. President Wilson, he declares, has been putting out successive feelers to find how far he could go and the German Government's attitude may have made him believe the Germans are servile souls, who will accept any humiliation.

FRENCH IMPRESSED BY CAPITULATION.
 PARIS, Nov. 1. The capitulation of Turkey, though anticipated has made nevertheless a profound impression in France. The newspapers declare it to be an event of supreme importance.

GERMANY ISOLATED.
 LONDON, Nov. 1. The complete isolation of Germany as a result of the desertion and surrender of her Allies is commented upon as the outstanding feature of the latest developments in the colossal drama of victory. The effect of this isolation upon her armies coupled with the desperate international conditions in Germany is regarded almost everywhere as bringing the end of the war very near, although in some quarters warning is raised that the German army and navy is still in existence, and in the hands of desperate men are formidable and dangerous. The general tenor of comment, however, indicated a belief that Germany must sooner or later accept virtually any terms the Allies impose.

Discussing the position of British subjects in Russia, in the House of Commons to-day, Lord Robert Cecil, Assistant Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, said that the government information was that the amount of bloodshed by the present government of Russia greatly exceeded anything that ever took place under the Imperial regime. The British government, said he, "will shrink from nothing within its power to get every British subject out of Russia and unquestionably mean to exact justice on the people guilty of these outrages when they are able to get them in their power."

PREMATURE BUT EXPECTED.
 COPENHAGEN, Nov. 1. The rumours of Emperor William's abdication are at least premature, the Berlin Vossische Zeitung says, in Thursday's issue. It adds, however, that the abdication question was discussed at the latest meetings of the War Cabinet, and it is stated that former Vice-Chancellor Desbrouck has left for the front on an important mission for Chancellor Maximilian. It is generally supposed, the newspaper says, that Dr. Delbrueck will present the Emperor with an abdication document.
