SALVATOR MUNDI.

CHRISTENDOM again keeps the Feast. The anniversary of the Resurrection of the Saviour of the world is again being celebrated. "He is Risen" is the salutation of the faithful, and the answer is "He is Risen indeed." And in the churches the story of that first Easter morning is again being repeated, as it will be repeated for all time until the dawning of the second advent. Many changes have been wrought in the world since that early morning, twenty centuries ago, when the few faithful women came to the sepulchre in the hope of finding the body of their Lord. How grievously disappointed were they when it was not discernible to their longing gaze, though the great stone had been rolled away from the entrance; and it was not until the words of the angelic guardian of the tomb fell on their ears, "He is not here, He is risen" that they realized that as He had promised so He had performed. Empires have risen to the apex of earthly glory and have vanished and been forgotten. Nations have been born, have grown and become famous, and other nations, powerful then, have been overthrown and their one-time glory and grandeur become merely matters of history. Men have lived and died in countless thousands, have won fame and honor, have discovered the mysteries of science, have impinged their names on the pages of time, and have lain mouldering in the grave for centuries. But through all the ages since that first glad Easter morning the cry triumphant has rung through the cloisters of time, "He is Risen; He is not here."

As it began to dawn, the Scripture tell us; in other words it was very early. The faithful few, with that fidelity and love which characterized their ministrations to the Master during His Lifetime, Passion, Crucifixion, Death and Burial, came early to the sepulchre. If they had not faith in the promise that He would rise from the dead, at least they could perform the last rites, according to Jewish ceremonial. And so they came to anoint the body. From the giving up of the ghost on that momentous Good Friday, when Calvary claimed its Divine yet human sacrifice, the faithful few had been preparing with loving hands for the ministrations of the last offices that human affection could bestow. They had watched the descent from the Cross, had witnessed the laying of the body in the rock-hewn tomb of Joseph of Arimathea, had noted the sealing of the stone which closed the entrance by order of the high priest, had been present when the guard of Roman soldiery had been set, under strict orders that no person was to be permitted near. And who can tell, but with that spirit born of faith they themselves did not keep fast and vigil all through the long hours from Good Friday afternoon to Easter Morning, the day of resurrection. The evangelist who told of these things in such terse language does not record it, but we can well believe that so great was their belief that something unusual was going to happen, they may have kept at a distance to see that none others came to spirit away the body of their dear Lord. For they came early, while it was yet dark, and, as the narrator says, found the stone rolled away, and when entering the sepulchre and finding not the body of the Lord, they were much perplexed. But immediately they heard the glad tidings then were they filled with joy, and departing, made haste to tell it to the eleven and all the rest.

AND so down the long centuries has passed the simple, yet infinitely transcendent and mighty story of the Resurrection. The faith once delivered to the Saints has not suffered, because of the multitudes of men and women who have died for it, unshaken by threat or persecution, scoffing or denial, either scientific or infidel. The many countries of the world, its myriad peoples, have seen how Christians could die for the faith, strong in the grace of Him who became on that wonderful "first day of the week" the victor over death and the grave "the Saviour of the world." His Gospel has been carried to the four points of the compass. The Arctic frosts have heard it, the tropic sun has shone on its exponents, as with His Word and His revealed truths as their guide, the heroic missionaries of all the centuries have preached Christ the Risen Lord to the millions who to-day form and make up the body of the Church Militant. The rolling away of the great stone set at the entrance to the tomb was an act most mysterious, and could but have been performed by supernatural power. Its meaning is not so fraught with mystery, for in the rolling away was released the Divinity of Him whose promise was that on the third day He would arise, and consequently the world is richer to-day for the sacrifice offered up at Golgotha, for since that manifestly omnipotent opening of the sealed sepulchre, so many centuries ago, a wonderful change began in the world. Death was robbed of its sting and victory triumphed over the grave. Therefore at this season, as in that Eastern city so long ago, the triumphant pean of joy bursts from the lips of Christians, and all the earth rejoices over the vanquished forces of sin and hell, by and through the resurrection from the dead. The triumph of Christ is the salvation of mankind.

"Come ye saints, look here and wonder.
See the place where Jesus lay;
He has burst His bonds asunder;
He has borne our sins away;
Joyful tidings,
Yes, the Lord has risen to-day.
Alleluia!"

Mr. Morgan's Farewell.

RAILWAY EXPERT LEAVES TO-MORROW.

Mr. R. C. Morgan, who has spent several months in the city in connection with railway matters, leaves, presumably for his home in Winnipeg, by to-morrow's express. Ever since his arrival Mr. Morgan has been shifting between the Reid Nfld. Co. and the Government until finally none knew what his position was. He is the author of the Railway report which has been so severely criticized, and some unkind people say that the "Open Letter to Mr. Morgan" now appearing in the Telegram has hastened his departure. It is not known whether he is returning to Newfoundland.

Latest Sealing News.

S. S. EAGLE ARRIVES. S.S. Eagle, Capt. Ed. Bishop, arrived from the icefields yesterday morning hauling for 15,200 seals. The Eagle, which was amongst the first of the fleet to strike the whitecoats, secured about 13,000 before the patch was cleaned up. Capt. Bishop reports that during the past week there has been an exceptionally heavy swell in the ice which makes it impossible for the sealers to work. The Eagle was forced to abandon the voyage owing to her bunkers getting low and a supply of 25 tons had to be taken from the S. S. Terra Nova to bring the ship to port. The latest messages from the fleet are as follows:—

BOWLING BROTHERS. Terra Nova—(Thursday p.m.)—13 miles N. E. Funks, very stormy, killed to-day 1,200.

Terra Nova—(Friday p.m.)—Thick fog, several pans missing, got about 1100 of yesterday's seals. Rangeri—No report.

JOB BROS. & CO. Neptune—(Thursday p.m.)—Struck a patch of bellman at 2 p.m. today. Killed between 2,000 and 4,000. Ice very loose, impossible for men to get about.

Neptune—(Friday p.m.)—Got about 1300 of yesterday's seals; ice went apart, lost a lot of seals which went down in slush.

Thetis or Seal, both on second trips, did not report. The total catch reported is 109,007 seals.

HIS DIARY.

April 18th.—Up, and the first thing I must pay 2 cents for a letter from Canada, the 3 cent postage being absorbed there. But I did content myself, seeing that soon the postage will be increased here and I will make my friends in Canada pay it. Mr. Pory told me this morning how the public is much roused against the Cabal, and will demonstrate their anger at a meeting early in the next evening. But I also hear how the Cabal is in mighty fear of the people and what they will do, so makes haste to reduce its expenses. Which, did I confess, please me mightily. All this day clouds and wind, and after breakfast, rain falls.

April 14th. (Good Friday).—A fair like a summer day, so I wear all my summer clothes. My wife to church, and I to read ½ hour in the book of Job. It is but now come to my ears how there do be three newly elected to the Legislative Council, and they J. F. Davey, Capt. Eli Dawe, and Dr. H. M. Mondell. In the afternoon to the Club and to play at Bridge. Home tired, and so to bed early.

CARD PARTY AND DANCE.—Don't miss the Card Party and Dance in the Star of the Sea Hall on Easter Monday night, commencing at 8 o'clock sharp. Admission 50c.—April 15.

Personal.

Mr. Alan Pittman, J. P. of Clarendville T. B., who has been in the city for some days on business leaves by express to-morrow for home.

Mr. R. C. Morgan, late General Manager of the Railway and recently Advisor of the Government on railway matters, leaves by express tomorrow for Canada, permanently we understand.

Hon. W. J. Ellis, who was in California during the past winter left for Los Angeles on Tuesday for New York and is expected to be home at the end of the month.

From Cape Race.

Special to Evening Telegram. CAPE RACE, To-day. Wind N.W., light, weather foggy westward; clear eastward. The steamers Cabot and Malakoff passed in yesterday; nothing sighted to-day. Bar. 29.12; Ther. 33.

BORN.

DIED.

There passed peacefully away, at Logy Bay, on Friday, April 14th, after a short illness, James Devereaux, aged 62 years. He was of a kind and cheerful disposition and was loved by all who knew him. Left to mourn his sad loss are a wife, 3 sons, 2 daughters, 4 sisters, 1 brother and grandchild, also a large circle of relatives and friends. Funeral on Sunday at 9.30 a.m. from his late residence, Logy Bay. May his soul rest in peace. Amen. Boston and New York papers please copy.

IN LOVING MEMORY Of Cpl. Alfred Stanley Cook, who was killed in action on the 14th of April, 1917, at the Battle of Monchy, France.

IN MEMORY OF Private Richard Volsey, who was killed at Monchy, April 14th. May the Sacred Heart of Jesus have mercy on his soul.

IN LOVING MEMORY Of 3226, Pte. George Chafe, who died of wounds in Germany, April 13th, 1918. May his soul rest in peace. —Inserted by his Wife.

IN LOVING MEMORY Of my dear son, No. 2255, Pte. Harold Hussey, Nfld. Regt., missing in the Battle of Monchy, April 14, 1917, aged 20 years and nine months. We trust he is gone through the beautiful gates.

Away to the city of gold, Which knows no sorrow, sad nor pain He is safe in the heavenly fold. Still fondly remembered in the home of his childhood. Sweet are the memories that cling round his name. Along with your comrades you lie sleeping. But the hearts in the old home still love you the same. Cherished memories of one so dear, often recalled by a silent tear. Only those who are loved and lost can understand the bitter cost. —Inserted by his Mother and Father.

IN LOVING MEMORY Of our dear sister, Mrs. Rebecca Smith, who died April 15, 1919. May her soul rest in peace.

In our hearts we mourn the loss of her we loved so dear; What would we give to clasp her hands, her gentle voice to hear? Her loving smile and welcome voice that is so dear to us. She is resting now in heaven above, in God alone we trust.

We sit and think of you, dear one while tear drops dim our eyes; But you could not say good-bye to us before you closed your eyes. May heavenly winds blow softly o'er her present resting place; She knows she is not forgotten, but committed to God's grace. —Inserted by her sister, Mrs. James Lawrence.

The Mission.

The Lenten Mission at St. Thomas's concluded yesterday, Good Friday, with the Three Hours Devotion, conducted by the Rector. The Mission has been extraordinarily successful, large crowds being present at all services. The attendance at the early celebration of the Holy Communion each morning at 6.45 was really remarkable. The same may be said for the afternoon services for Women, and at the evening services and on Good Friday the old Parish church was crowded to the doors. It is safe to say that the Mission has had an inspiring effect on all who attended.

A Peculiar Situation.

A peculiar situation has arisen over a life insurance policy and the matter will be thrashed out in the Courts shortly. An employee of a well-known local firm died recently and the policy which he carried, and which was made out in the name of his wife, was claimed by two women. The deceased had left his real wife in the United States and had been living with another woman here for some time previous to his death, and both think they are entitled to the money. Able counsel have been engaged on both sides and the case should be very interesting.
