Fin says the man who is so busy attending to civic duties that he can't take his family out riding isn't much approaching a farm on a state highway in the Catskills. It reads:

PRINCE GEORGE III.
LONDON, Dec. 18.
Prince George, the King's youngest living son, will be operated on for appendicitis almost immediately according to the Daily Mail. He is 23 years old and a naval cadet.

POLAND'S MURDERED PRESIDENT.
WARSAW, Dec. 17.
The body of President Narutowicz, who was assassinated on Saturday, will lie in state during the great public ceremony. Narutowicz visited the Art Exhibition here against the advice of Premier Nowak. He was shot while conversing with the British Minister, William Max Muir, who had just offered congratulations on his elevation to the Presidency. "Condolences, you say," replied the President. He had scarcely spoken the words when three shots rang out in quick succession. He sank slowly to his knees, then collapsed slowly, dead.
He leaves two children, a daughter of sixteen and a son in the twenties. One of the President's last acts was to telegraph Count Samozvski, Polish Minister in Paris, and his rival in the final balloting for the Presidency, thanking him for cordial congratulations.

AUSTRALIAN ELECTION.
MELBOURNE, Dec. 18.
Although Premier W. M. Hughes expresses the opinion that the Nationalists will still be the strongest party as a result of yesterday's general elections, present figures indicate the defeat of the Government. It is impossible to forecast the result owing to incompleteness of the count, and the effect of the allotment of preferences. The Labor Party, is at present leading with forty-four seats, the Government twenty-three, the Country Party six, Liberals and Independents three.

REFERRED TO HOME SECRETARY.
LONDON, Dec. 17.
After a demonstration of the unemployed in Trafalgar Square to-day, a deputation was sent to Buckingham Palace in an orderly attempt to present a petition to King George. The King declined to see the men, and referred them to the Home Secretary.

TULSA'S CARGO ON FIRE.
CHARLESTON, Dec. 16.
The Shipping Board steamer Tulsa is fighting a fire in her cargo of cotton waste and bagging, according to a radio message received here last night.
The flames were believed to be under control, the latest message received here last night. The flames were believed to be under control, the latest message said, and the vessel is attempting to reach Savannah.

DISABLED AND ADRIFF.
BOSTON, Dec. 16.
The coastguard cutter Acushnet last night broadcasted radio messages to all vessels in range to be on the lookout for the French schooner Salatrio, disabled and adrift, with two men on board. "She was blown from her anchorage off Nantucket on Tuesday, and has not been seen since two days ago, when the Acushnet lost sight of her. The captain and two of the crew went ashore Tuesday seeking water, and the schooner was blown off in their absence. She had two thousand cases of alcohol aboard, bound from Cuba for Antwerp.

U.S. MAY HELP.
LONDON, Dec. 16.
Diplomatic and financial experts of London newspapers, voice the general opinion that the rumor of the United States or International loan to Germany runs far ahead of fact. Reports suggest possible financial assistance to Germany, and the fact of Ambassador Harvey's departure for Washington next week, coupled with intimations that the Harding administration is disposed to exert a helpful influence to European affairs attract wide attention and fill many columns in the daily papers.

LAUSANNE TREATY.
LAUSANNE, Dec. 16.
Drafting the Treaty of Lausanne is now in progress, but it is impossible that any complete document can even be initiated before Christmas.

JAPANESE STEAMER ABLAZE.
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 16.
Fire in the hold of the Japanese steamer Chicago Maru, lying in the outer harbor with a three-quarter million cargo, got beyond control today. One hundred passengers were taken off to-day, and the sailors' feet were burned by hot decks. The steamer is in the round the world service and arrived here yesterday from New Orleans.

A MYSTERIOUS FLEET.
PERNAMBUCO, Dec. 18.
The passengers and captain of the ing twelve warship destroyers steaming to the southward, conveying merchant vessels, presumably colliers.

The semaphore station this morning also reported seeing a fleet of vessels which flew no flags. As far as is known no fleet at the present time is navigating in these waters.

SENATOR LODGE CHALLENGED.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.
Proceedings to eliminate Henry Cabot Lodge, Republican leader, from the Senate after March 4th, has been begun by the Liberal Republican League of Massachusetts and John A.
Nicholas, recently prohibition candidate for the Senate. The validity of Senator Lodge's election on November 7th was "protested and challenged," in two communications to vice-president Coolidge. "Flagrant irregularities in November Senatorial elections are charged in a petition which de-

FOUR HUNDRED RESCUED.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 17.
The United States destroyer Bainbridge, yesterday rescued four hundred persons from the burning French hospital ship Vinsalong, in the Sea of Marmora. Fifteen are missing, five believed killed by explosions.

SEVEN RESCUED.
SAULT STE. MARIE, Dec. 17.
Seven of thirty-six people, crew and passengers known to have been aboard the Spanish River Paper Company's tug, Nelcoe, when she struck a rock off North Side Island, one hundred miles from here last Wednesday morning, reached here last evening by train. Two more are safe. The fate of the others is not known, but it is thought possible they reached shelter, either on an island or on the mainland though no word has come from them.

Susu's Passengers.

The following passengers arrived by S. S. Susu on Saturday afternoon—Misses E. Norman, S. Payne, A. Dyke, J. Johnston, Mrs. J. Keats; Messrs. A.
Payne, G. Blackwood, P. Guiton, J.
Davis, L. Thorne, J. Davis, G. Davis, D. Blandford, and 6 steerage. The ship had a very stormy passage but came through without mishap. She brought a full cargo consisting mostly of fish.

INSTALLED.

Mr. A. S. Butler, one of the principals of the Aerial Survey Company Ltd., and the Hawkes Bay Trading Company, has recently purchased the schooner Radio from Messrs. Job Brothers & Company. The Radio was built this year, and is a very fine vessel. It is understood that the Radio will be fitted with an auxiliary engine besides having some minor alterations made.
