MESSAGE FROM MANAGER BELL.
Mr. S. P. Cullen received a message from Mr. John Bell, this morning, which reads as follows:—

"Have finished training. Have covered course in good time. O'Toole is in good condition. I have every confidence in him as a winner. MacAulay and McLellan are the favorites. There are a lot of good men competing. They have the best field of starters for years. We are going to do our best to win the race and our chances are good."
(Sgd.) J. BELL."

RON O'TOOLE.

Who is representing Newfoundland in the Halifax Herald Marathon to-day. The Halifax papers look upon him as one of the favourites.

TO-DAY'S FOOTBALL.

Outcome Eagerly Awaited.

Much interest is being centred in the outcome of to-day's Inter Collegiate football game between the Collegians and Peildians, as its result will have a large bearing on the championship. A win for the Collegians will put them in the running for the honors, whilst a win for the Peildians will put all three teams on an equal footing.

GIBBONS SCORES ANOTHER VICTORY

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 24.

Tommy Gibbons, of St. Paul, added another to his long string of victories when he knocked out Ted Jamieson, the Milwaukee light heavyweight in the first round of a scheduled 15 round bout here to-night. It was apparent from the start that the Milwaukee man was no match for Gibbons. After about a minute and a half of fighting Gibbons caught his opponent with a left hook to the jaw that sent him to the floor for the count of nine. As he gained his feet he was scored again by a similar blow.

Geneva and the Navy

London Morning Post: The late Lord Salisbury once said that the British Fleet could not climb the Caucasus, but apparently it may be commanded from the Alps. The League of Nations is an institution upon which the British Empire is in a permanent minority. It is, in fact, a foreign body upon which we shall presently see representatives of Germany and Soviet Russia. It is perched in the Centre of Europe well outside the range of British influence, and might even be hostile in secret intention to the British Empire. This body is to secure the peace of the world by bringing painless pressure on any Power which ventures to disturb it. There is a race of natives in India called Jains who are so humane that they will not kill even a flea; and when the dogs in the villages become a pest they benevolently impound them within walls until they die of starvation. Such is the humane device of the League of Nations to preserve the peace of the world, and to this noble end the British Navy is to be dedicated.

Famous Recipes for Home Cooking

COCONUT AND CHOCOLATE PASTRY CAKE.

(This precious recipe was handed down from the wife of the third governor of Massachusetts who used it "way back in 1787.")

(All measurements level.)
1 can Baker's coconut—southern style.
1 cupful Crisco.
1 cupful sugar.
2 squares chocolate.
4 eggs.
¾ cupful milk.
2 cupfuls flour.
2 cupfuls cold mashed potatoes.
1 teaspoonful salt.
2 teaspoonfuls baking powder.
1 teaspoonful cinnamon.
¾ teaspoonful cloves.
Cream Crisco and sugar, add melted chocolate, egg yolks, well beaten, coconut, potatoes.
Sift together remaining dry ingredients, add alternately with milk. Last fold in egg whites, beaten stiff and dry.
Bake about forty-five minutes in moderate oven.

What Troubled Him

I recently heard Lord Lonsdale, who is devoted alike to boxing and motoring, recount with great gusto the story of how "Bill, the Bermundsey Batter"—or a name to that effect—got in the way of one of those little two-seaters.

His thirteen stone caught the full impact of the tiny car, and Bill "took the count."

When he came round he looked for the cause of the trouble. "What did that?" he asked. "My car," said the owner. "Your wot?" said Bill, with deep disgust. "Lumme! Fancy me—being knocked out wiv a roller skate!"
