can handle a quantity of good clean seed at once. G. A. Bingham & Co.

The King's Daughters will meet at the residence of Miss Inglis, Pine St., this evening at 7:30, and a full attendance is requested.

Whether you intend to do any wall papering or not it will pay you to read the White Drug Store ad on back page of this issue of THE EXPRESS. There is information in it which you should not miss reading.

Do your trading on Friday this week, as all places of business will be closed on Saturday all day, out of respect to the memory of the Queen, whose funeral will be held on that day.

Mr. Albert Trim offers for sale his fine large brick house and good frame barn, on Talbot street east. Buildings new, location the best. His reasons for selling are that he intends moving on his farm in March.

"Rudyard Kipling" will be the subject of the next of the series of lectures by Mr.
Rutherford, given in aid of the Collegiate Institute fund. It will be given early in February.

The many friends of Mr. David Liddle will be sorry to learn that he is again confined to his bed with a serious sickness, but we learn that there has been a change for the better during the past few days.

Mr. Nelson Parker died at his home in Dexter on Sunday last, at the ripe old age of 79 years. He was the father of Mr. Alva Parker, of Malahide, and leaves nine other children and many friends to mourn his death.

Mr. M. Leeson has leased the store next to the Traders Bank, and is moving his stock and groceries into it today. Being more centrally located, he will no doubt do a much larger business, and will be pleased to have a call from all his friends.

Everyone has read about the pom-pom gun and its wicked work during the war in South Africa, and anyone anxious to see the shell used in this gun may have their curiosity satisfied by calling at this office, where one of them has been left by Mr. W.
A. Hare.

A picture of Queen Victoria, heavily draped, occupied a conspicuous place on the platform at the Methodist church last Sunday, and the services both morning and evening were opened by the large congregations, rising and singing "God Save The King."

The O'Sullivan Business College, which has been running in Aylmer for several months past, was closed on Monday night last after a very successful season's work.
The departure of Miss Scott, who has had charge of the school, will be deeply regretted by many warm friends, who have learned to highly esteem and respect her for her many friendly and ladylike qualities.

The members of the Public Library board met for organization for 1901, at the Traders Bank on Friday evening last. The Rev. J. W. J. Andrew was elected chairman, and Mr. H. P. McMahon was elected Sec. Treas. The library is in splendid order, with nearly 4,000 choice books on the shelves, which are free to every citizen of Aylmer.

Saturday next Feb. 2nd, has been proclaimed a public holiday, and a day of mourning for our departed Queen, and all places of business in Aylmer will be closed all day. The programme of proceedings for the day is as follows. All stores and places of business as far as possible, will be draped in mourning, at the request of the Mayor. At 10:30 a.m., services will be held in Trinity church, and the Mayor and council will attend in a body. At 1 o'clock all the bells in town will start tolling, and continue every half minute, until they have tolled 82 times. The band and firemen will in the meantime march to the drill hall, and escort the cadet corps to the front of the town hall, where the band will play the National Anthem, and the cadets will fire a royal salute at 1:45 p.m.
All who can get in, will then enter the hall, where a public meeting will be held, with Mayor Glover in the chair. Short addresses will be made by resident ministers and others, interspersed with songs and instrumental music, of a sacred and patriotic character. During the time this service is in progress from 2 to 4 o'clock, all the hotels in town will be closed. Friends from the surrounding country are cordially invited to take part in the proceedings of the day, and citizens of both town and country are particularly requested not to forget, that there will be no trading done in town on Saturday, and do their trading on Friday.

Mrs. Florence Miller left a few days ago for Washington, D. C., where she will remain for the winter.

To ladies.—The White Drug Store ad on back page of this issue deserves your attention. Don't lay down this paper before you have read it.

We are at present having another run of good sleighing. This is not written for those who reside here and know all about it, but for those at a distance. See?

$25,000 private funds to loan on real

To-RENT—House on Water Street, one hundred dollars per year. Key next door.
Apply Mrs. Thos. Dredge, 20 Washington Avenue, Toronto, Ont.

Mr. C. H. Burdick took part in the programme at the Labor "At Home," held in St. Thomas last week, and brought down the house with his clever imitations.

No word has yet been received from Mr.
W. R. Hare, and it will not be a surprise to those who know him best, if he suddenly drops in home without any warning of his coming. That would certainly be just like him.

On Friday, Jan. 18th, after a long and painful illness, Nettie, wife of Mr. Charles E. Sargent, instructor in mathematics at the Hillhouse high school, died at her home in New Haven, Conn. Mrs. Sargent was a sister of Mrs. S. Legg, Lyon, and also Mr. F. E. Sheppard, of Toronto Saturday Night.

There is a treat in store for all who attend the Methodist church next Sunday, when Dr. Sutherland, General Sec. of Missions, of the Methodist church of Canada, will preach, both morning and evening.
Dr. Sutherland is acknowledged as one of the grandest pulpit orators in Canada, and will no doubt have a large audience at both services.

Mr. W. Sneyd, formerly of the Molsons Bank here, who has been in the Klondike, a few miles from Dawson, for the past couple of years, is the guest of Mr. R. G. Moore at present. Mr. Sneyd has a claim of his own which he is working with considerable success, and his many old Aylmer friends wish that he may strike it rich. He will return to that far northern country in the spring.

On Tuesday last death claimed another of our old pioneers in the person of Mrs.
Betsy Spry after a brief illness, in her 75th year. Her husband preceded her (or the better land some nine years ago). They have lived on the farm on which she died, for thirty years. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. James Chalk to mourn her loss, and who resides on the old homestead. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon to Danby, the services being conducted by Rev. Fansher who preached a very impressive sermon from Revelations 14, 13.

Mr. E. A. Coughell has just finished extensive additions and changes in his store which make it one of the largest, handsomest and most complete in Western Ontario. A large number of new racks have been built for his immense stock of wall paper, the store has been papered and newly painted throughout, and the ceilings beautifully decorated. The electric lights have been placed in clusters against the ceiling, and the wires are all concealed. Everything about the place looks clean, fresh and new, and the store is a credit to the town, as well as its popular young proprietor.

Mr. John Richardson received a letter on Friday last, saying that his sister, Mrs.
J. W. Colling, was very sick at her home in Lowellville and just before starting for her home on Saturday, a telegram arrived saying that there was no hope for her recovery.
He proceeded to Lowellville by the first train and on Sunday wired home that she had passed away. Mrs. John and Mrs. Arthur Richardson left on Monday to attend the funeral. Particulars of her a sickness are not at hand, but many old friends will receive this news with much sadness, as Mrs. Colling had many warm friends in and around Aylmer, who loved and respected her for many noble qualities.

Mr. L. Grawburger is the possessor of several old relics which he values very highly, viz., an old crooked knife, used many years ago for digging out butter bowls, wooden spoons, etc. It was given to Mr.
Grawburger's father by his parents when he came to Canada in 1835, and was over 50 years old at that time. The other is also an old knife, used by one of Butler's Rangers during the revolutionary war. The genuineness of the knife and its history are beyond dispute, it having been used by a man named Walrath, who gave it to his son Andrew Walrath, who, at his death left it to his daughter, and she gave it to Mr.
Grawburger many years ago. There is also an old deed made in New York in 1819.

Good house to rent. Apply to M.
Leeson.

Miss E. Fothergill who has been visiting friends in Grand Rapids for the past month or so, has returned home.

Private funds to loan, lowest rates of interest. A. E. HAINES, Brown House Block, Aylmer.

Mr. Brown of the Collegiate Inst. staff, has been confined to the house with the grippe for a few days this week.

Curtain poles, window shades, lace, chenille and tapestry curtains, large line and price low at Anderson's.

The County Council which adjourned last week on account of the death of the Queen, will meet again in St. Thomas on Tuesday afternoon next.

The White Drug Store ad on the back page gives you an idea of the amount of wall paper sold in Aylmer in a year. Don't fail to read it.

Miss Thomas, who has been spending the past few weeks with Mrs. Saunders and other friends here, left for her home in Detroit on Monday last.

Mr. W. C. Talbot has just completed a new, up-to-date oven, much larger than the former one, to meet the requirements of his increasing business.

While leaving the home of Mrs. C. F.
Caven one evening last week, Mrs. George Pepper slipped on the ice, and fell on the stone walk, cutting a large gash over her eye which required several stitches.

Now is the time to order your wood, as we expect to be done teaming from the bush in a week. We have some choice 4 foot wood, dry or green, that we are selling at the very lowest prices. J. H. Still, H. McManus agent, Mero House Aylmer.

Miss S. Glover who will leave shortly for Chattanooga, Tenn., to reside with her brother, will offer the brick house on the corner of Pine and King Sts., and also frame house on Pine street, as well as all her household effects, for sale by public auction on Feb. 9th. It is very seldom that such good furniture and furnishings are offered for sale, and there should be many buyers present.

In last week's issue it was our painful duty to announce the death of Dr. Edgar Haun, of California, and this week we have to announce the death of his brother, Dr.
Chas. Haun, of Chesham, Mich., which occurred on Monday last. Both were born and spent their younger days at Luton and their comparatively early death will be deeply regretted by many old friends.
They were brothers of Mrs. Asa Miller and Mrs. W. B. Laur.

$300,000 to loan. $100,000 of trust fund at 5 per cent. in sums of $3,000 and over $100,000 at 5 1/2 per cent. in sums of $1,000 and over. $100,000 at 6 per cent. in sums of $200 and over. Double security required on 5 per cent. loans; gilt edge security on 5 1/2 per cent. loans; good security on 6 per cent. loans, with privileges to suit the borrower. Land bought and sold on commission. Real estate valued, rents collected, assignee, trustee, etc. C. O. Learn, real estate broker, Brown House block, Aylmer, Ont.

The Gospel Mission, of Aylmer, will have a Holiness Convention, held in Royal Temple's Hall, above Mr. Cronk's furniture store, beginning on the evening of the 7th of Feb., continuing till the evening of 10th, (Sun. evening.) Services will be held three times a day, 10 a. m., 2:30 p. m., and 7:30 p. m. On Sunday afternoon, (Feb. 10th.) the ordinance of feet-washing will be observed in connection with the communion of the Lord's supper. This service will be held in the church of the Disciples, (who have so kindly given it for the occasion) as the hall will probably be too small to accommodate all who wish to attend. Ministers are expected from Markham, Toronto, Berlin and other places. All the rest of the services will be held in the hall, except Sunday afternoon service.

On Sunday, Jan. 13th, a young man from St. Thomas, came to Aylmer to have a time. Got a little too noisy and consequently paid a short visit to our police station when he gave the name of Mr.
Minor, of St. Thomas, stating he was a dancing master and in town on business.
Who he really was is totally unknown to anyone, but the fact remains that many of our respected citizens loving a spy but of gossip, and others, no doubt, from honest scruples have given credit and helped to spread a very false report stating that the gentlemen, Mr. H. McManus, who is conducting a dancing class at E. L. Brown's, is the same person who was in town on the 13th. We wish to state emphatically that Mr. McManus is a thorough gentleman in every respect, enjoying the highest confidence of a very high circle in St. Thomas and respected by everyone with whom he comes in contact. He is at present managing Mr. Still's wood business in Aylmer and many of our citizens know him from personal acquaintance. It was only after much persuasion he was induced to start a class here and we are very sorry indeed that such a false story should be given credit at all before thorough investigation into the facts.

See our gold splashed toilet sets for $2.75.
China T House.

Miss Ethel Marlatt, of Buffalo, spent a few days here last week, with her mother.

Our watchword.—Purity and reliability in compounding prescriptions. J. E.
Richards.

Mr. J. A. Learn claims to hold the record for the sale of pigs at his recent sale, a sow and 8 pigs 2 1/2 months old went for $63.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Thomas Marchant is very poorly at present at his home south-west of town.

If you want a pipe, a good free smoker and a good looker for a small sum of money, call on Emmett & Harris.

The members of the Aylmer Fire Co. have their rooms very prettily draped in honor of the late Queen.

Quarterly meeting services will be held in the Methodist church next Sunday, the sacrament being held at the evening service instead of the morning as usual.

Mr. Wm. Murdie, who has been spending the past few months with his father here, returned to his home at Inlay City, Mich., this week.

Mr. A. Early, of Mt. Salem, left on Tuesday last for Bridgeport, Nebraska, where he expects to remain for some time at least.

A deputation consisting of Mayor Glover, W. S. Caron, D. Marshall, J. J. Nairn, and D. H. Price will attend a meeting of the Ontario Beet Sugar Assn., to be held in Toronto, Feb. 6 and 7.

The interior of the post office is draped in mourning out of respect to our dear Queen, whose picture occupies a place above the general delivery. The general effect is neat and rich, but not overdone.

The committee appointed to revise the prize list for the East Elgin County fair, met on Thursday last, and increased the prizes in live stock, by over $250, making a first-class list for next year.

The A. O. U. W. will hold an open meeting in the opera house on Monday evening next to be addressed by Mr. Joseph Gibson, of Ingersoll, and Grand Organizer A. C.
Graham.

The social evening held by the members of the Home Circle, on Friday evening last was a very enjoyable affair. Mr. H. H.
Wright occupied the chair and carried out a splendid programme of songs, readings, speeches, instrumental music, &c.

Mrs. Strachan and her mother spent Sunday last at the opening of the new English church at Tilbury, which Mrs.
Strachan's brother, Mr. Hobson, has been instrumental in having built since he took charge of the parish some three years ago, when in a very much run-down condition.

Mr. W. A. Dore has returned to his position in the Aylmer Iron Works, where he was working before leaving for South Africa. It will go a little tough to settle down to work again, but there will be no Boer bullets to dodge.

The officers of the Daughters of England were installed on Thursday evening last by Dist. Deputy, Miss Wakefield, of St.
Thomas, who was accompanied by about 20 ladies of the lodge in that city. The visitors were entertained with an oyster supper, and an impromptu programme.

The Rev. A. H. Ranton left on Tuesday last for Chesterfield, where he will hold services in a small country Presbyterian church, for the next two weeks. The thank offering here, after deducting all expenses, left over $100 for Mr. Ranton, a splendid recognition of his faithful work, and taken of the esteem in which he is held.

Mr. W. F. Charlton is completing arrangements for opening up a boarding and livery business in his new block, and expects to have everything in shape for next week. In connection therewith he will operate a "rapid delivery," and if he receives the encouragement he expects, will undertake to make a delivery of goods to all parts of the town, every half hour during the day, beginning at 8 o'clock a. m. We should think this would be an advantage in many respects to both the merchant and his customers.

On Monday evening last, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glover Summers, of New Sarum, was invaded by about 150 of their neighbors and friends from St. Thomas, Ingersoll, Aylmer and Bayham, who took full possession, and went in to have a good time. It was the anniversary of the birthday of Mr. Summers, and his friends took this way of showing their esteem for him as a friend and citizen. After partaking of a sumptuous supper arranged from the many full baskets, Mr. Walter Carter was elected chairman, and proceeded to carry out a fine programme of choice readings, recitations, songs, etc., interspersed by several selections by Mr. C. H. Burdick, the champion ventriloquist and impersonator of Aylmer. It was a very enjoyable time, and the large gathering dispersed at a late hour, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Summers many years of continued health and prosperity.

Blue Ribbon and Salada Tea in lead packages. China T House.

A Good Fish Story

The Herald, of Dunboyne, Iowa, tells the following good story about a dog and fish, owned by Dr. Hoag. The Mr. Benner referred to, is General Passenger agent of the Illinois Central R. R. and the story is true if it does sound little fishy. It is as follows:—Scott Benson is having more than his share of trouble. The Warren Sentinal fellows started Pandora's box in his direction when they substituted his picture for that of an eighteenth century Indian chief. Then Scott treated himself to a fine sea lined overcoat and just after he got it, fell and sprained his ankle. For nearly a month he was confined to his bed and his sea-skin coat to the wardrobe. Scott is just able to get around again and now Dr.
Hoag has landed him against it strong.

The doctor is telling the blue ribbon fish story of the season and he calls on Scott to corroborate it. The story is that the doctor has recently put into his office an artistic aquarium in which he has three gold fish. He invited Scott over to see the aquarium and Scott went. Dr. Hoag has a fine black spaniel that is a great pet with his family and friends. The spaniel is very jealous and the interest Scott manifested in the aquarium aroused the venom of the dog.
The story is that right in Scott's presence the dog raised itself up to the aquarium and putting his head down into the water, caught and swallowed one of the fish. Then it retired behind the stove and a minute later it gulped the fish up again. The fish flopped on the floor, evidencing it was alive, and Dr. Hoag put it back into the aquarium where he resumed work with his fins and tail as naturally as Jonah got action with his tongue again after the whale evicted him.

Dr. Hoag rather reluctantly admitted the story is true and said Benson could testify to it too. Scott was asked about it and looked real sad. Scott says he doesn't kick on being called a liar when he really is lying, but he says he always wants the game if he goes to stand for the name. In this instance, though, he says he is certain he'll have to stand for being called a prevaricator when he is in reality, and quite unusual, telling the truth.

After the reporter felt he told Larry that he wished dogs could talk; that if they could that black spaniel would help him and Dr. Hoag out a whole lot.

THE QUEEN HERSELF

From the Guelph Herald, Jan 26th, 1901.

The Herald yesterday, gave a review of the forthcoming Life and Reign of Queen Victoria, to be published by the World Publishing Company, of Guelph. It is now learned that the World Publishing Company have purchased the Canadian copyright of the latest published work Her Majesty wrote namely, "More Leaves From the Journal of a Life in the Highlands." The World Publishing Co., will add this to their book without charge of price.

Imagine such authors, namely, Her Majesty the Queen, Dr. John Coulier, and John A. Cooper, editor of the Canadian Magazine. This will make the book about 700 pages, quality never equalled, and only $1.75 in price.
