Wolseley's Summing-Up

Of the Military Situation at Glencoe Junction

Has a Tendency to Create Apprehension.

Gen. Yule Confronted by the Main Boer Army Under Joubert,

Which is Calculated to Number 12,000 or 13,000 Men.

Kimberly Is All Right—Great Work at Mafeking.

How the Recent Victories Affect the Dutch—British Magnanimity to the Boers Astonishes Them.

London, Oct. 24.—The parliamentary secretary of the war office, Mr. George Wyndham, made a statement in the House of Commons yesterday, saying: "Lord Wolseley sums up the position in Natal effectively this morning as follows: In the battle of Elandslaagte, Oct. 21, two guns were captured from the Boers, who lost heavily. A large column of the enemy appeared advancing from the north, first on Gen. Yule, who consequently had fallen back from Dundee, and was concentrating at Glencoe Junction. In this operation we gathered in the wounded and medical attendants left at Dundee. Gen. White was in position at Ladysmith, and is being reinforced from Pietermaritzburg. The enemy appears to be in large numerical superiority."

The war office has received the following dispatch from Gen. Sir Stewart White, commander in Natal, dated at Ladysmith camp, at 4:54 today: "Gen. Yule telegraphed me yesterday evening that the wounded at Dundee were doing well." This dispatch partly relieves anxiety regarding Glencoe, as the British had evidently not been attacked up to last evening.

SOMEWHAT OMINOUS. A dispatch from Ladysmith, Natal, dated 4:15 Sunday afternoon, has just been received. It is a literal repetition of Cape Town's Glencoe advices, and is regarded as somewhat ominous that nothing has since been received respecting the result, especially when viewed in the light of Lord Wolseley's statement that Gen. Yule's forces felt it necessary to retire from Dundee to Glencoe Junction. Gen. Yule evidently is IN A TIGHT CORNER.

as he now has or had to face the main Boer army under Gen. Joubert. Gen. Yule's position at Glencoe, Natal, is a somewhat precarious one.
