-The sale of the stock of E. L. Cleveland, of Alvinston, which was advertised for yesterday by Mr. J. W. Jones, was withdrawn, a settlement having been reached. The stock comprised boots and shoes, glassware and groceries and was valued at $1,226 69.

-The King's Daughters in connection with Christ Church held their monthly meeting last evening. An excellent address was given by Mrs. Tilley, which was of a very encouraging character, and no doubt proved helpful as well as extremely interesting to the members.

-According to a dispatch received the Alert Baseball Club, of this city, will not have the services of that crack first baseman, "Doc" Sippi, next year. He has signed a contract to play with the Grand Rapids team in the Western League. "Doc" will be a hard man to replace and the lovers of baseball will be sorry to hear of his signing elsewhere. Joe Knight, the left fielder of the old London club, has also signed with Grand Rapids.

-Mr. Pendergast denies some of the statements in the paragraph copied yesterday from the Detroit News. He writes: "In regard to the article published that the Navins did not withdraw the non-support case against Pendergast, the latter did not have a change of heart, nor change of purse, as the statement is correct that they withdrew the charge, paying all costs. He (Pendergast) is not looking for newspaper notoriety, but would like true statements. The action was brought against Pendergast by Navin, and therefore he had no action to drop."

-St. Thomas Journal: Very general regret will be felt at the death of Miss Mary Roe, daughter of Mr. Charles Roe, which sad event took place yesterday at St. Joseph's Hospital. London. The deceased has been ailing for a year and went over to London to have an operation performed, which was successfully accomplished on Friday, but she had not the strength to recuperate from the shock, and passed away 48 hours afterwards. The deceased lady, who was 32 years of age, was a member of Trinity Church, and took a prominent part in Sunday school and church work, being a teacher in the Sunday school.

Keep At It. A leading American advertiser recently wrote as follows: "A man eats a bucketful of food a week. Make him eat a halfbucketful on Monday and a half on Wednesday, and nothing between and he'll starve to death or die of the stomach-ache. In the continuity of everything is the success of it, particularly advertising."

Came Home to Die. Mr. Alfred J. Webster, formerly of this city, but who had lived in Detroit for the past six or seven years, died yesterday at the residence of his mother, 232 Queen's avenue, in the 44th year of his age. Deceased came home to spend the Christmas holidays and was taken ill with typhoid fever, from which he never rallied. He was at one time in business here and was much esteemed. The funeral will be private.

An Enjoyable Concert. night with an audience which had assembled to listen to one of the best concerts ever given in the city Rev. Dean Innes presided. A glance at the programme indicated what proved to be a fact-that all who took part were artists, and judging is $422,861 19. The total assessment is from the numerous encores demanded the vast audience were highly delighted with the selections given. That favorite with Lon-doners, Mr. Harold Jarvis, of Detroit, was present, and sang in his usual fine voice, and with the pleasing expression and ease which is so characteristic of his performance. In the solos, "Bay of Biscay" and "The Holy City" (which was given by request), he displayed his abilities in a wonderful manner and received a rousing encore, to which nothing but a response would satisfy the audience. It was, indeed, a fitting climax to the evening's enjoyment. Mr. Thomas Martin pleased his hearers with a pianot solo equally as well as on previous occasions; while Mrs. Moore, in giving a selection of her own composition, was loudly applauded. Major Denison, Miss Grace Blackburn and Miss Oakley, in recitations; Miss Ashby, in a piano solo, and Miss Quita Moore and Miss Hamilton Moore, in solos, were also well received. Owing to illness Dr. Sippi was unable to be present. The following is the programme:

Reading..... Miss Oakley. Piano solo-Arietta.....

Nocturne
Polonaise in A flat ..... Chopin
Mr. Thomas Martin. Song—"Margarita"....Lohe
Mr. Harold Jarvis.
Recitation—"Pauline Pavlovna"...T. B. Aldrich
Mis Grace Blackburn.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC. Wilson Barrett To-Night in "Othello"-

"The Irish Statesman." WILSON BARRETT TO-NIGHT. Wilson Barrett, the renowned English actor, will appear at the Grand Opera House to-night in "Othello." The play needs no commendation; neither does the actor. Mr. Barrett's fame has preceded him from across the water, and his American tour has crowned him with fresh laurels. His Othello is a magnificent impersonation. Miss Maud Jeffries is said to be the across the product of the contract of the said to be th to be the sweetest Desdemona on the stage, and Franklin McLeay, the Canadian, a brilliant Iago. The stage mountings are

To-morrow (Wednesday) night "Claudian," a melodrama new to Canada, will be presented, earthquake and all. The latter is described as marvelous. The story of 'Claudian" is a unique one and abounds in thrilling situations. Mr. Barrett's engagement will be an event extraordinary.

"THE IRISH STATESMAN." A poor house greeted Carroll Johnston in "The Irish Statesman" at the Grand last night. Those who were there appeared well pleased with the performance. The show is a new departure in Irish drama. The curtain generally rolls down finally when the oppressed hero and the persecuted heroine find all the obstacles to their union removed. But in "The Irish Stateman" the play goes further, and the hero becomes one of the leading statemen of the American Republic, while the heroine, supposedly an American heiress, turns out to be an adopted Irish orphan girl. But that does not interfere with the fortune. The last act is laid in the year 1900, and Ireland is then supposed to be a nation. Carroll Johnston fully sustained the rollicking part of Osmonde O'Sullivan, and Miss Clara Knott did fequally well as Annabel Lovelace, the heroine.

BARRETT'S POPULARITY. A Hamilton dispatch of last night's date says: "Wilson Barrett's 'Hamlet' tonight drew the largest and most fashionable audience ever in the Grand Opera House. Saturday's houses in Toronto were the greatest in the history of that house."

It first made definite inroads in this country three years ago, and this year it seems to have returned in a more virulent form, pro-ducing effects far-reaching and uniformly demoralizing to the system, and it becomes absolutely necessary that the system should be kept in a state of perfect health in order to withstand and combat this terrible disease.
