Were a Burden on City for Some Time-Furnished Transportation.

Some months ago a German whose some months ago a German whose name was Van Holstein, and who claimwhose children attend either of the schools named, and who may have been under the impression that the pupils were in the upper assembly room, and in order to avoid a possible congestion at the exits, Mr. Ferguson, the teacher in charge of them, had half logical ideas, which he expressed too freely, arrived in London, from Toledo, Onio. He had been a resident of Montreal for some time, and his financial affairs becoming badly mixed, he resolved to seek his fortunes in Canada again, and consequently left Toledo. He had with him a wife and five chil-
