HOT FIGHT IN FAR WEST COURTS

Brilliant Californian Lawyes Battling Against Extradition

From British Columbia.

Victoria, B. C., July 21.-A case which is exciting the liveliest interest along the whole Pacific Coast from San Francisco to Victoria is now be ing heard daily in a crowded court in this city by Judge Lampman. The chief figure in the case is Geo. D. Collins, one of the foremost lawyers in San Francisco. Until a few weeks ago he was one of the first citizens of the bay city, occupying a most elaborate suite of rooms there and enjoying perhaps the most lucrative practice in town. Today he is a fugitive in Victoria, fighting desperately to resist extra-dition for an offense which, if proved. will brand him as a felon. He is accompanied by Clarice McCurdy, whom he calls his wife, but whom those in
