FARMER INJURED IN TROLLEY SMASH

W. A. Armour, of Pottersburg. Hurt Internally On Richmond Street Today.

STREET CAR HIT WAGON

Stevely's Delivery Rig Was Also Smashed at the Some Time-Three Horses Were Badly Cut.

W. R. Armour, an elderly farmer living a mile east of Pottersburg, was very seriously injured this afternoon when his wagon was struck on Richmond street near King by Wellington car No. 68, in charge of Motorman D. A. McLean

The accident happened just in front of Ex-Mayor Stevely's store. The latter's delivery wagon was standing in front and Mr. Armour was driving around it when the car struck his wagon, which is a heavy one, such as is commonly used on a farm. The car picked the wagon up and aurled it against Stevely's wagon with great force.

Thrown From Seat. Mr. Armour was thrown from his seat and struck on his side on the curb. His team and the horse attached to Stevely's wagon were badly cut. were held by passersby that they could not run away, and Mr. Armour, who was in an unconscious condition, was carried into Stevely's

Internal Injuries. Dr. Cline was called, and found that Mr. Armour sustained internal injuries and was very badly shaken up. His side is terribly bruised and his ribs are very sore. It is not thought that any are broken. Mr. Armour later recovered conciousness and was taken home. The Stevely wagon was badly wrecked, and the heavy farm wagon was also put

Toronto, July 14.-The Toronto Globe this morning has the following: After the execution, Rev. W. B. Tighe called the reporters about him and made his statement. He censured those of the papers which had published sensational reports about McLachlan, and said that, at McLachlan's request, he would hand to the representative of The Globe the only statement the condemned man had made, as The Globe was the only paper that treated him fairly. He then placed in The Globe's hands the following:

Archibald McLachlan has taken

Dr. Abraham and myself into his conidence, and admits the justice of the sentence. He has been truly and sinerely penitent, and, assured of divine forgiveness, dies at peace with God and men. He leaves a message for young men: 'Be careful of the company you keep, and above all things keep away from all forms of strong drink, which has been my undoing At his own request I make this statement for the Toronto Globe exclu

Lash For Horse-Beaters

It looks as though things were going to come Magistrate Love's way in bunches. This morning he received a letter from a woman residing in the city, inclosing a clipping regarding the recent case in Hamilton, where a horse beater was sentenced to a year in prison. The woman mentioned that there were wife-beaters and horse-beaters, but pointed out that women have tongues and can make their troubles known, while horses have to suffer in

"It almost makes me ill," she wrote, "when I see the manner in which many poor horses are ill-used. If, like the dear good man you are, you will give some of the young men and girls who drive horses to death a severe lesson, I will, with my own hands, brings a big bouquet and place it on your desk, and will pray that you may have a golden crown." The court always gives horse-beaters the limit when they come before him and has no intention of doing otherwise. The next culprit will certainly get all that's coming to him.
