VISIT AT SEATTLE

Second Day of Big Imperial Pte. Edward Curtin, Who En-Council To Be Known As "Canadian Day."

Seattle, Wash., April 15 .- The selection of the second day of the big Imperial Council, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, at Seattle in July as "Canadian Day," was officially announced today by the executive committee of Nile Temple, in charge of arrange-ments for the gathering of 200,000 Masons and their families.

Monday, July 12, will be practically given over to the Canadian temples, and series of features in their honor are being planned. In Canada are eight -Al Azhar, at Calgary; Gizeh, at Victoria; Karnak, at Montreal; Khartoum, at Winnipeg; Luxor, at St. John, N. B.; Mocha, at London, Ont.; Philae, at Halifax, and Wa-Wa, at

The program for Canadian Day includes the reception of the imperial special train, bearing the imperial potentate and his divan, with a procession through the downtown streets; governor's reception, and reception at the United Northwestern Temple headquarters to all visiting temples and nobles. In this the Canadian temples will largely participate.

Many special trains of the 150 scheduled for the council are planning to pass through Canada, and Masons on that side of the boundary line will have ample opportunity to entertain the leading shriners and their wives.

BENTON—REDMOND.

A pretty wedding took place at St. Peter's Cathedral Monday at 8 o'clock when Miss Margaret Redmond, daughter of John Redmond, of Bothwell, was prettily attired in white slik dress and veil with orange blossoms. She was attended by Miss Alexis Burns, who wore a beautiful embroidered voile with hat to match. John Cartier, of Bothwell, was best man, and Miss Mary Redmond, of Bothwell, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mr. and Mirs W. C. Benton will return here after their honeymoon trip to Stratford and points East. The bride verse fixed by the received and points East. The bride received and points East. TER AND NIECE OF
