HOW TO ADDRESS MAIL TO SOLDIERS.

The following correct method of addressing troops has been issued by Dr. R. M. Coulter, deputy postmaster-general. In order to facilitate handling of mail at the front, and to insure prompt delivery, it is requested that all mail be addressed as follows:

- (a) Regimental number.
- (b) Rank.
- (c) Name.
- (d) Squadron, battery or company.
- (e) Battalion, regiment (or other unit), staff appointment or department.
- (f) Canadian Contingent.
- (g) British Expeditionary Force.
- (h) Army Postoffice, London, England.
- (i) Unnecessary mention of higher formations, such as brigades, divisions, is strictly forbidden, and causes delay.

POST YOUR CHRISTMAS PARCELS EARLY.

SENDING PRESENTS BY PARCEL POST.

(Clip This Out for Reference.)

For the information of those sending parcels to soldiers in England or at the front, The Advertiser publishes the rates of postage: To England, the rate is 12 cents a pound or any fraction thereof. Limit weight on parcels to England is 11 pounds. To France or Belgium, the rate is 24 cents for parcels any weight up to three pounds; from three pounds to seven pounds (the limit), the rate is 32 cents per pound, but 32 cents for any weight from three to seven pounds. Any letter or parcel for any soldier in the hospital (even if this hospital is not known to the sender), having the word "hospital" marked across it will be delivered. A customs declaration must be attached to each parcel, for which application should be made at the stamp window of the postoffice.

YORK ST. MISSION HAS SEVENTY-THREE MEMBERS IN KHAKI

Twentieth Anniversary Was Celebrated on Sunday.

IS GROWING STEADILY

Warm Congratulations Extended to Evangelist and Mrs. Belcher.

There was at least one church in the city in which seats were at a premium on Sunday evening, the York Street Mission. Up the long flights of steps leading from the street to the doorway scores had passed before the opening hour, men, women and children, until every seat was filled.

The palms and bright flowers decorating the platform suggested an occasion out of the ordinary. The faces of the members of the congregation revealed great interest and expectancy.

It was the 20th anniversary of the coming to the mission of Evangelist T. L. Belcher and Mrs. Belcher.

Growing Steadily.

In the congregation were very few who had been present at the beginning of the mission, but the number had increased. Looking back over the years, these few recalled the replacing of the old house, where services were first held, with the present adequate building; the gradual growth in strength from a mere handful of people until the sons roll of membership of today.

Country Unhealthy.

"This country at the present time is in an unhealthy condition as far as recruiting is concerned, and something has got to be done."

"If the Government of this country wants the men and needs the men, and we are informed they are needed, then it is a manly thing to go and fight for all that liberty and justice stands for, then it is unmanly not to go."

"Canada must not consider her duty fulfilled when the half a million men have been furnished, but she must go on and on filling up the gaps until the great struggle is ended and victory is ours."

Appeal for Recruits.

"I am here tonight to appeal for recruits and it seems a shame that we should be forced to continue to appeal."

"I am here to ask you to give the boys at the front a square deal. If it is right for one man to go and fight it is right for another to remain at home."

"We want men for the 24th Battalion. If you don't like the kit these other battalions are here in London, I will put trousers on you. Come down to Windsor, join up and we will see you right and make a man out of you," said Sgt.-Major Knight in closing his address.

Paid High Tribute to LATE REV. J. S. WALKER

Memorial Service Held in South London Baptist Church.

A memorial service for Rev. J. S. Walker, who died in the city on Tuesday, was held in the South London Baptist Church, of which his son, Rev. William Walker, was pastor, Sunday morning.

Rev. H. H. Bingham of the Tabernacle Church preached, and during his sermon he paid high tributes to the dead minister.

"Perhaps it is fitting to some extent that I should preach at a memorial service for him," he said. "It was my part to be his pastor during one summer at Tavistock, which was his last pastorate before retiring from the ministry. I knew him to be a man of unquestioned faith in God, and also in the Scriptures. Notwithstanding his wide reading he was wonderfully loyal and true to Christ and his stoning work for the race. He was always deeply impressed and marvelled at the love of God toward him. It seemed to be his constant theme. He lived on a height of spiritual experience that gave him a true perspective of life and a wonderful grasp of spiritual truth."

"In this spiritual elevation he also gained great power in service. Though his ministry was devoid of anything startling or sensational, yet it was a power in the lives of all who knew him."

In referring to Rev. Mr. Walker's life, Mr. Bingham pointed out that he had been led to Christ at an early age and began to preach when only seventeen. He was 32 years old at the time of his death. He was born in Glasgow, Scotland. He was the son of a stone mason, F. K. Walker, and was the son of Capt. Robert Walker. His first pastorate was at Glasgow, Scotland, and he came to Canada in 1862, bringing with him a family of young children. One of these is now a missionary in India, and Rev. William Walker is pastor of the London South Baptist Church. Mrs. Abel, a daughter, resides at Hickson, Ont., and a son at Jefferson City, Missouri.

WORK OF GIDEONS GROWING STEADILY ALL OVER DOMINION

B. F. Stumpf Elected President at Annual Meeting.

DISTRIBUTING BIBLES

Over 300,000 Have Been Sent Out by the Association.

At the annual meeting of the Dominion executive committee of "The Gideons" held Saturday afternoon in Wesley Hall, officers for the coming year were elected as follows:

President: B. F. Stumpf, Kitchener, president; J. E. Chamberlain, Toronto, first vice-president; R. E. Gregory, London, second vice-president; F. N. McConnell, Toronto, treasurer.

President Stumpf led a discussion "Why isn't Every Christian Commercial Traveller a Gideon?" in which a number of the delegates joined. Other questions discussed were "Shall the Dominion executive insist upon money accompanying all orders for Bibles?" and "Why doesn't every man wearing a Gideon button, work for Gideonism?"

The final order of business was "Organization," which was discussed under three heads—administration, publicity of our work, and finances.

In the evening the delegates met at the Y. M. C. A., where a banquet was provided by the London Camp. Following the banquet, W. D. Quigley, president of the London Camp, welcomed the brethren from outside points, and extended an invitation to any travellers present who were not Gideons, to become members. Brother McGuire, of the Gideons, then read the "Gideon's Creed," which was adopted by the delegates.

Rev. H. H. Bingham gave an address on "Achievements of the Bible." He said, "The Bible is the greatest of all books, and it is the duty of every Christian to be acquainted with it. It is the word of God, and it is the power of God. It is the light of the world, and it is the life of the soul. It is the foundation of our faith, and it is the basis of our hope. It is the source of our strength, and it is the key to our salvation. It is the treasure of the church, and it is the glory of the world. It is the word of God, and it is the power of God.
