comedian, was tendered a benefit concert in the City Hall last night by his many friends. There was a large audience, and the varied programme was much enjoyed. Mr. J. R. Mitcheltree was chairman. The programme included a piano solo by Mr. Frank Gruber; character songs by Sandy Drennan; club swinging, Miss A. Howlett and Mr. W. J. Judges; Highland Fling, Miss Florence Small; selections, London Guitar and Autoharp Club; guitar solo, Mr. Minor; recitation, Miss A. Howlett; song, Mr. J. O'Neil; character sketch, Messrs. Drennan and W. J. Element; and musical specialties by Prof. Goldberg, which were the most interesting feature of the programme.

The animated pictures of the Boer war to be seen at the Auditorium today promise to excel any yet here, as they will include among them a number of stirring scenes, taken at enormous expense and great risk of life on the battlefields of South Africa. As there will be but two entertainnents, a matinee and at night, Auditorium should be taxed to its limit at both exhibitions.
