

Woolen Suits Tomorrow

Final Attractions for Men

New Suit Tomorrow for $15.00 Only

Newly Fit-Rite Suits

usually heavy purchase of order to secure the top quality offered on the pro-

Therefore able to give you an exceptional value in such

As an Easter offering particularly desirable.

Art Sale Tomorrow

at only $15.00

of all the latest novelties in broken checks, both doubled, they surpass almost any values offered. High-exceptional skill in designs membership are their characteristics.

Woolen Suits for Correct

Indoor Wear

Suits are made in England, light and dark greys, striped. Prices range from $15.00

Suits for Fashionable Wear

Coats are made in whiple, light and dark greys, striped. Prices range from $15.00

Very Smart and Dainty

a large assortment of

of all the correct patterns, of each $1.00

the Boy

Boy's Three-Piece Suits,

single breasted, in broken

pes, special value for East-

$4.50

Wear; Hats Stiff, Soft

and Crushed

TIFF HAT has the finest style ever worn by the

each hat $2.50

ADORA, one of the finests ever exhibited in the

being a pearl grey with grey binding. The price

$5.00

ES. We also carry a line of brown, black, pearl grey and are the lightest hat

at the popular price of

$3.50

Pelham Hat

is an elaborate and pos-

hats remain at $3.50 to $2.50

Children's Tams

of Children's Sailor Tams

green, blue and regulation

ging in price from $1.00

to $2.50

New Spring Caps

a large assortment of

at wear, all the latest patterns, special Easter

up to $1.00

of the Largest and Most of Gentlemen's

Ever Carried

LISH OXFORD SHIRTS

and cuffs in neat stripes

white, special value $1.75

BOSOM SHIRTS, in the open coat shirt fashion, attached $1.25

HECKED AND STRIPED

fish, in fine quality print,

and $1.25

Y VALUE IN PRINT

AY SHIRTS, neat and

$1.00

e Variety for Easter

Spring Wear

BLK LACE SOX, clocked

per pair $2.25

in beautiful shot effects.

$1.00

Established fact that

ing or Decorating.

m.

LTD.

MR. BRYCE AS GUEST OF CANADIAN CLUB

Speaks in Eloquent Terms of Canada in Response to Toast

GROWTH OF IMPERIAL SENTIMENT

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Reference to His Visit as First Made by Ambassador to Washington

Ottawa, April 1.—The Canadian club dinner of this evening, at which Mr. Bryce was the guest of honor, was a most enthusiastic affair.

After the loyal toasts, Sir Wilfrid Laurier proposed the toast of the guest, remarking on the map of Great Britain and Ireland, which he held aloft, that it was a map of a country which had been so well known to the world.

Mr. Bryce explained that he had resolved to come to Canada as soon as possible after his departure from Washington, in the hope that he might be better able to understand the situation with which he might have to deal.

The ambassador spoke of his first visit to Canada 37 years ago, and of the development of the country since then, and of the increasing respect felt toward this country by the United States.

MR. MCGUIGAN BANQUETED

Montreal, April 1.—Railway officials and other friends of F. H. McGuigan, of the Grand Trunk, banqueted him at the Canada Club on Saturday evening prior to removing to St. Paul to enter the Great Northern service.

WEDDED AND DIED

St. John, N. B., April 1.—Some time ago H. Atwater Smith, a wealthy resident of St. John, was married to Miss Mollie Peters of St. John.

DEATH TO WOLVES

Dauphin, Man., April 1.—Alex. Bole, who lives a few miles southeast of town, claims the record for trapping wolves during the past winter.

INCREASED DIVIDEND

Montreal, April 1.—Another Canadian bank has gone into the long list increasing its dividend. It was announced yesterday that the Canadian Imperial Bank had put its stock on a basis of 11 per cent and that a dividend at that rate had been declared for the quarter ending April 30.

P. E. ISLAND'S WANTS

Charlottetown, P. E. I., April 1.—In the provincial legislature a resolution was passed recommending that the company organized to establish telephonic and probably telegraphic communication with the mainland by laying a combination cable under the Straits of Northumberland be given a subsidy by the federal government.

CHURCH PROSPERING

Hamilton, Ont., April 1.—At Christ Church cathedral yesterday a special collection was taken up to reduce the mortgage of $18,000. Over $12,000 was contributed.

OLIVER MOWAT'S BISTER

Kingston, April 1.—Mrs. John Duff, sister of the late Sir Oliver Mowat, is seriously ill. Her children have been called to her bedside.

THOMAS COWAN DEAD

Nanaimo, April 1.—Thomas Cowan, postmaster at Ladysmith, and one of the best known men in this island, died yesterday from pneumonia.

There is also some talk of the establishment of a whaling station on Denman Island. An American has been in view. Whales are very numerous in this vicinity, and such an industry on Denman would be a profitable investment.

TO TEST A WILL

Ottawa, April 1.—Mr. Justice Clute will preside at the spring assizes, which open tomorrow. An action to test the validity of the will of the late Rev. Canon Sloan is among the suits.

Canon Sloan has $10,000 of the estate to be distributed in charity, and appears as defendant.

CUTTING OFF LUXURIES

Montreal, April 1.—Orders given during the winter covering twenty automobiles have been cancelled in Montreal alone owing to losses in the recent slump in stocks.

HEALTH MATTERS

Toronto, April 1.—The creation of a department of health as a branch of the government was urged upon Premier Whitney and other members of the government by a deputation representing the Ontario Medical Association. It was refused.

DOCTORS OF DIVINITY

Toronto, April 1.—The degree of Doctor of Divinity will be conferred upon the following clergymen at Knox college on Thursday evening: Rev. E. Welsh, M. A., Rev. J. C. Shearer, B. A., Rev. J. E. Ratcliffe, B. A., and Rev. Hugh MacKay, B. A.

PEACE CONGRESS

New York, April 1.—Charles J. Bonaparte, attorney-general of the United States; James Wilson, secretary of the department of agriculture, and Allan B. Parker, president of the American Bar Association, today accepted positions as vice-presidents of the national arbitration and peace congress, which will meet in this city on April 11.

ONTARIO'S DEATH RATE

Toronto, April 1.—Returns from 765 registrars to the provincial board of health show that out of a population of 2,128,329, or 98 per cent of the inhabitants of the province, the total number of deaths during March were 2760, or a rate of 15 per thousand.

COAL MINERS STRIKE FOR A "CLOSED SHOP"

Fifteen Hundred Men Leave Work at Springhill, N. S., Collieries

Springhill, N. S., April 3.—Fifteen hundred miners of the Cumberland Railway and Coal Company have gone on strike. They refuse to work until all miners have joined the union. This is in line with the general movement of the coal miners in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Cape Breton.

DEATH OF J. M. KITCHEN

Brantford, Ont., April 3.—J. M. Kitchen, largely interested in provincial industries, died this morning.

FOUL PLAY FEARED

Hamilton, Ont., April 3.—Harry O'Keefe Webb, nephew of the dean of Salisbury, was being missing yesterday. There are fears of foul play.

EUROPEAN IMMIGRANTS

St. John, N. B., April 3.—The Canadian Pacific steamship, Montecoma, from Antwerp, landed 2200 third-class passengers this afternoon.

BAN ON THEATRE

Montreal, April 3.—Archbishop Bruhais has withdrawn the ban on the Theatre des Nouveaux, following a declaration that "La Rafael, the objectionable play, would be withdrawn tonight. Despite the Archbishop's injunction, the theatre was crowded on Monday night.

MUST HAVE SUNDAY PAPERS

Two Thousand People Crossed on Ferries to Secure Them

Windsor, Ont., April 3.—It is estimated that 2000 subscribers of Detroit newspapers crossed the ferry on Sunday to get their papers from this city. Walker,ville and Sandwich, the authorities having served notice Sunday past that papers would not be allowed across the line until Monday.

The movement was left for Toronto today to persuade the government to grant some relief for the situation in the border towns at least.

STORM WAS SEVERE

Heavy Weather in Vicinity of Nanaimo and Comox

Nanaimo, April 3.—One of the severest gales for many years raged today in this district, and with particular severity on Baynes sound, the causing much shipping to seek shelter for the day. Reports from Nanaimo and Comox say the blow is the worst experienced this year, and that it is accompanied by a considerable snow-fall.

A logging camp has been established just below Union bay. It is reported that between one and two hundred loggers are to be employed to log a valuable tract of timber recently acquired by local investors in that section. The camp is the largest ever established in this district, and will be a valuable acquisition to the town from financial and other standpoints.

The logs are to be shipped to both Canadian and American ports. There is also some talk of the establishment of a whaling station on Denman Island. An American has been in view. Whales are very numerous in this vicinity, and such an industry on Denman would be a profitable investment.

NEW BELL SECRETARY

Montreal, April 2.—W. George Slack has been appointed secretary treasurer of the Bell Telephone company, an office vacated through the death of C. F. Solater.

MR. EMMERSON'S WRIT

Halifax, April 2.—Harris, Lovitt, Harris and Stairs issued a writ today on behalf of Hon. H. R. Emmerson against the Halifax Herald Publishing company for libel in publishing an article from the Frederick Gleasoner reflecting on his character.

MR. BOURASSA'S MOTION RULED OUT OF ORDER

Discussion Suddenly Cut Off by the Decision of Mr. Speaker

RULING SUSTAINED ON APPEAL

Col. Hughes Points to Enormous Deficit in Revenue From Royalty on Yukon Gold

Ottawa, April 3.—Mr. Bourassa's "women, wine and graft" resolution, which had been looked forward to with so much interest, not to say anxiety, by members of the House, ended today in a fizzle. It was closed on the stroke of 11 when the House adjourned this morning, and when it met again on Monday.

When the House assembled this morning there was a large attendance of members, but the galleries were empty. Mr. Bourassa called upon Mr. Fowler either to substantiate his charges or withdraw them, and, failing his appeal, either of these courses, that he be censured by the House. The member for Labels had not proceeded very far in his remarks when his motion was ruled out of order by the speaker, and the discussion ceased in regard to the ruling.

The leader of the opposition was opposed to discussion of the subject by any technical point, and Mr. Foster backed him up. But Sir Wilfrid Laurier was in favor of upholding the ruling of the House, and the speaker's ruling held good. However, it was challenged by Mr. Bourassa, and the speaker's ruling was upheld by a vote of 104 to 39.

Mr. Bourassa's resolution, which had been looked forward to with so much interest, not to say anxiety, by members of the House, ended today in a fizzle. It was closed on the stroke of 11 when the House adjourned this morning, and when it met again on Monday.

When the House assembled this morning there was a large attendance of members, but the galleries were empty. Mr. Bourassa called upon Mr. Fowler either to substantiate his charges or withdraw them, and, failing his appeal, either of these courses, that he be censured by the House. The member for Labels had not proceeded very far in his remarks when his motion was ruled out of order by the speaker, and the discussion ceased in regard to the ruling.

The leader of the opposition was opposed to discussion of the subject by any technical point, and Mr. Foster backed him up. But Sir Wilfrid Laurier was in favor of upholding the ruling of the House, and the speaker's ruling held good. However, it was challenged by Mr. Bourassa, and the speaker's ruling was upheld by a vote of 104 to 39.

Mr. Bourassa's resolution, which had been looked forward to with so much interest, not to say anxiety, by members of the House, ended today in a fizzle. It was closed on the stroke of 11 when the House adjourned this morning, and when it met again on Monday.

When the House assembled this morning there was a large attendance of members, but the galleries were empty. Mr. Bourassa called upon Mr. Fowler either to substantiate his charges or withdraw them, and, failing his appeal, either of these courses, that he be censured by the House. The member for Labels had not proceeded very far in his remarks when his motion was ruled out of order by the speaker, and the discussion ceased in regard to the ruling.

The leader of the opposition was opposed to discussion of the subject by any technical point, and Mr. Foster backed him up. But Sir Wilfrid Laurier was in favor of upholding the ruling of the House, and the speaker's ruling held good. However, it was challenged by Mr. Bourassa, and the speaker's ruling was upheld by a vote of 104 to 39.

Mr. Bourassa's resolution, which had been looked forward to with so much interest, not to say anxiety, by members of the House, ended today in a fizzle. It was closed on the stroke of 11 when the House adjourned this morning, and when it met again on Monday.

When the House assembled this morning there was a large attendance of members, but the galleries were empty. Mr. Bourassa called upon Mr. Fowler either to substantiate his charges or withdraw them, and, failing his appeal, either of these courses, that he be censured by the House. The member for Labels had not proceeded very far in his remarks when his motion was ruled out of order by the speaker, and the discussion ceased in regard to the ruling.

The leader of the opposition was opposed to discussion of the subject by any technical point, and Mr. Foster backed him up. But Sir Wilfrid Laurier was in favor of upholding the ruling of the House, and the speaker's ruling held good. However, it was challenged by Mr. Bourassa, and the speaker's ruling was upheld by a vote of 104 to 39.

Mr. Bourassa's resolution, which had been looked forward to with so much interest, not to say anxiety, by members of the House, ended today in a fizzle. It was closed on the stroke of 11 when the House adjourned this morning, and when it met again on Monday.

When the House assembled this morning there was a large attendance of members, but the galleries were empty. Mr. Bourassa called upon Mr. Fowler either to substantiate his charges or withdraw them, and, failing his appeal, either of these courses, that he be censured by the House. The member for Labels had not proceeded very far in his remarks when his motion was ruled out of order by the speaker, and the discussion ceased in regard to the ruling.

The leader of the opposition was opposed to discussion of the subject by any technical point, and Mr. Foster backed him up. But Sir Wilfrid Laurier was in favor of upholding the ruling of the House, and the speaker's ruling held good. However, it was challenged by Mr. Bourassa, and the speaker's ruling was upheld by a vote of 104 to 39.

Mr. Bourassa's resolution, which had been looked forward to with so much interest, not to say anxiety, by members of the House, ended today in a fizzle. It was closed on the stroke of 11 when the House adjourned this morning, and when it met again on Monday.

When the House assembled this morning there was a large attendance of members, but the galleries were empty. Mr. Bourassa called upon Mr. Fowler either to substantiate his charges or withdraw them, and, failing his appeal, either of these courses, that he be censured by the House. The member for Labels had not proceeded very far in his remarks when his motion was ruled out of order by the speaker, and the discussion ceased in regard to the ruling.

The leader of the opposition was opposed to discussion of the subject by any technical point, and Mr. Foster backed him up. But Sir Wilfrid Laurier was in favor of upholding the ruling of the House, and the speaker's ruling held good. However, it was challenged by Mr. Bourassa, and the speaker's ruling was upheld by a vote of 104 to 39.

Mr. Bourassa's resolution, which had been looked forward to with so much interest, not to say anxiety, by members of the House, ended today in a fizzle. It was closed on the stroke of 11 when the House adjourned this morning, and when it met again on Monday.

When the House assembled this morning there was a large attendance of members, but the galleries were empty. Mr. Bourassa called upon Mr. Fowler either to substantiate his charges or withdraw them, and, failing his appeal, either of these courses, that he be censured by the House. The member for Labels had not proceeded very far in his remarks when his motion was ruled out of order by the speaker, and the discussion ceased in regard to the ruling.

The leader of the opposition was opposed to discussion of the subject by any technical point, and Mr. Foster backed him up. But Sir Wilfrid Laurier was in favor of upholding the ruling of the House, and the speaker's ruling held good. However, it was challenged by Mr. Bourassa, and the speaker's ruling was upheld by a vote of 104 to 39.

AGRARIAN PROBLEM

Russian Parliament Again Gives it Attention

St. Petersburg, April 1.—The discussion of the agrarian problem, to which the first Russian parliament almost entirely devoted its legislative activity, began in the house today. Over a hundred speakers signified their intention of participating in the debate, to which, according to the plans of the parliamentary leaders, only one day per week will be devoted.

Neither the Constitution nor the programme of the agrarian problem as a concession to the peasant constituents of many of the members. Each political party has put forward three or four spokesmen to explain the features of the programme, but the great mass of the speakers are peasants, whose remarks will contribute but little to a solution of the question.

The proposition of the Constitutional Democrats, which was introduced today, is practically identical with that of the agrarian programme of the agrarian problem as a concession to the peasant constituents of many of the members.

Each political party has put forward three or four spokesmen to explain the features of the programme, but the great mass of the speakers are peasants, whose remarks will contribute but little to a solution of the question.

The proposition of the Constitutional Democrats, which was introduced today, is practically identical with that of the agrarian programme of the agrarian problem as a concession to the peasant constituents of many of the members.

Each political party has put forward three or four spokesmen to explain the features of the programme, but the great mass of the speakers are peasants, whose remarks will contribute but little to a solution of the question.

The proposition of the Constitutional Democrats, which was introduced today, is practically identical with that of the agrarian programme of the agrarian problem as a concession to the peasant constituents of many of the members.

Each political party has put forward three or four spokesmen to explain the features of the programme, but the great mass of the speakers are peasants, whose remarks will contribute but little to a solution of the question.

The proposition of the Constitutional Democrats, which was introduced today, is practically identical with that of the agrarian programme of the agrarian problem as a concession to the peasant constituents of many of the members.

Each political party has put forward three or four spokesmen to explain the features of the programme, but the great mass of the speakers are peasants, whose remarks will contribute but little to a solution of the question.

The proposition of the Constitutional Democrats, which was introduced today, is practically identical with that of the agrarian programme of the agrarian problem as a concession to the peasant constituents of many of the members.

Each political party has put forward three or four spokesmen to explain the features of the programme, but the great mass of the speakers are peasants, whose remarks will contribute but little to a solution of the question.

The proposition of the Constitutional Democrats, which was introduced today, is practically identical with that of the agrarian programme of the agrarian problem as a concession to the peasant constituents of many of the members.

Each political party has put forward three or four spokesmen to explain the features of the programme, but the great mass of the speakers are peasants, whose remarks will contribute but little to a solution of the question.

The proposition of the Constitutional Democrats, which was introduced today, is practically identical with that of the agrarian programme of the agrarian problem as a concession to the peasant constituents of many of the members.

Each political party has put forward three or four spokesmen to explain the features of the programme, but the great mass of the speakers are peasants, whose remarks will contribute but little to a solution of the question.

The proposition of the Constitutional Democrats, which was introduced today, is practically identical with that of the agrarian programme of the agrarian problem as a concession to the peasant constituents of many of the members.

Each political party has put forward three or four spokesmen to explain the features of the programme, but the great mass of the speakers are peasants, whose remarks will contribute but little to a solution of the question.

The proposition of the Constitutional Democrats, which was introduced today, is practically identical with that of the agrarian programme of the agrarian problem as a concession to the peasant constituents of many of the members.

Each political party has put forward three or four spokesmen to explain the features of the programme, but the great mass of the speakers are peasants, whose remarks will contribute but little to a solution of the question.

The proposition of the Constitutional Democrats, which was introduced today, is practically identical with that of the agrarian programme of the agrarian problem as a concession to the peasant constituents of many of the members.

Each political party has put forward three or four spokesmen to explain the features of the programme, but the great mass of the speakers are peasants, whose remarks will contribute but little to a solution of the question.

The proposition of the Constitutional Democrats, which was introduced today, is practically identical with that of the agrarian programme of the agrarian problem as a concession to the peasant constituents of many of the members.

Each political party has put forward three or four spokesmen to explain the features of the programme, but the great mass of the speakers are peasants, whose remarks will contribute but little to a solution of the question.

The proposition of the Constitutional Democrats, which was introduced today, is practically identical with that of the agrarian programme of the agrarian problem as a concession to the peasant constituents of many of the members.

Each political party has put forward three or four spokesmen to explain the features of the programme, but the great mass of the speakers are peasants, whose remarks will contribute but little to a solution of the question.

The proposition of the Constitutional Democrats, which was introduced today, is practically identical with that of the agrarian programme of the agrarian problem as a concession to the peasant constituents of many of the members.

ROOSEVELT'S REQUINER TO HARRIMAN REPLY

Railway Men Wanted Assistance in New York State Campaign

CONTRIBUTIONS TO ELECTION FUND

President Alleges That Those From Doubtful Sources Were Returned by the Committee

Washington, April 3.—President Roosevelt discussed with number of his callers today various features of the controversy between Mr. Harriman and himself growing out of the introduction of letters between them. He did not desire to be quoted in the matter, however.

To his friends the president today made it plain that his version of Mr. Harriman's letter to him in the house of 1904 was that Harriman wanted assistance from the National Republican committee to help Chairman Odeh in the New York campaign, towards whose expenses he (Harriman) had raised $100,000.