She can work a design by Lansing or Burt; But she cannot cut out for her children a skirt, Or make for her husband a well-fitting shirt-She doesn't know chicken from turkey.

I'm willing a girl should read Latin and Greek; Should German and French and Italian speak; And be "up" in the latest ethetical freak, It she only knows chicken from turkey.

I'd like her in music and song to take part; Read poetry, science and cultivate art, If husband and children were first to her heart, And if she knew chicken from turkey.

Knew barley from rice, knew a tart from a pie; A boîf from a stew, a broil from a fry; And if she went into the market to buy, Knew very well chicken from turkey. For, to make a home happy, all knowledge must blend Art, science and service their benefits lend; Then, ladies so clever and wise, condescend To know about chicken or turkey.

Now, here comes the moral of this little tale, Which showed that Helene did not know the word "fail," For she went to where cookery books were for sale, And made known her desire to the clerk. He, From several volumes, immediately took A copy of "Mrs. Clarke's Cookery Book," And said, "You'll soon know, if through this you will look, What to do with a chicken or turkey."
