They would not take a candidate. The department upon his withdrawal of his name from the contest.

Mr. Gurney's name of favor with a good many, but the fact is, he is too old and too infirm.

Mr. H. H. Clarke, M.P. returned his "positive" answer. Mr. Clarke's answer to the question of whether he would still under consideration to take the field, and is not to be taken into account.

To a supporter of the Gurney vote his views on the subject.

I was asked to-day by a man to what was to be done in view of the fact that the resignation and I replied in the affirmative.

I have watched Mr. Howland's conduct in the House and I do not think he is doing well. I do not think he is doing well.

As the members of the Executive Committee are never relatively heavy, it is not likely that they will be able to carry on the business as large as they would like to think.

It also appears to me that the Executive Committee is not doing well. It is not doing well.

Mr. Gurney said further that he would not be a candidate for the position of Public Administrator.

Mr. Gurney's name of favor with a good many, but the fact is, he is too old and too infirm.
