It having come to the knowledge of the "Good Templars" Association that the white population in the United States is antagonistic to associating with the colored race, they have passed a resolution, at their last meeting in London, to the effect that if Americans are determined to establish a distinction of races in works of humanity and temperance, the order in England can not hold any further intercourse with them as brethren.

The cloud which for the last two or three years has been casting a dark shadow upon Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, has not passed away. Accusations against Beecher are still rife. Had there been no spot on his fame as a teacher of righteousness, what a prominent position would he have occupied at the opening of the Centennial. His brilliant intellect and towering eloquence would have entitled him to a high place among the magnates most distinguished on the occasion.

Two of our sportsmen, Messrs. Cox and Neily, brought into town, on Thursday last, a string of trout which made the eyes of the disciples of Isak Walton sparkle with delight, and there has been a general muster ordered, to take into consideration the advisability of at once making a raid on that particular chain of lakes. Even that methodical animal, the printer, has a desire to go slay, kill, and destroy his share of the "speckled beauties."

The string of fish brought in by those referred to above, contained about five dozen, and weighed upwards of forty pounds. They were taken on the Paradise Lakes about fifteen miles from this town.

EUROPE.

London, May 20.—The Mussulman inhabitants of Ploier, in Bosnia, under the pretext that a number of Christians were to quit the town, attacked and massacred 100 persons. Turkish troops afterwards occupied the place, and made numerous arrests.

The funeral of the murdered Consul took place yesterday with great ceremony and in a manner satisfactory to every one. Perfect order was maintained. An investigation has not afforded any reliable explanation of the real cause of the assassination of the Consul. It is certain, however, that the murders had not any connection with the alleged forcible conversion of the Christian faith.

CHURCH BURNED.—The Wesleyan Church situated at Pine Grove, Middleton, was destroyed by fire on Saturday night the 20th inst. This building had lately been put in thorough repair at a cost of $300. The fire broke out at 10 o'clock, and the flames were so violent that the fire was not known, no fire or light having been used in the house for several days. Beside the loss of the church, a fine organ and a new library for the Sunday School were destroyed.

ACCIDENT.—An accident of a very serious nature, happened to our venerable Father Davies on Sunday evening. He was spending the week at his residence, and by some means tumbled and fell to the bottom. His daughters and son hearing the noise ran to ascertain the cause, and found their father dead and insensible. He was at once removed and medical aid procured. His face and ear were much cut and bruised by the fall. He is recovering.

Col. Gowen, one of the promoters of the proposed Railway from Nictaux to Bridgewater, is now at Middleton with a staff of Engineers to look over the route. He is to be the contractor, and is ready to undertake the work at once, if sufficient encouragement is given him. He sincerely trusts that our people will be alive to their interests in this matter, and will not let so favorable an opportunity be lost for the development of our country's resources.

HONORARY ACADEMY.—The closing services of the Academy, and graduation of Young Ladies, will take place on Wednesday the 31st of May. A lecture will be delivered before Acadia Athenaeum in the evening of the same day, by the Rev. J. D. P. Jones, D. D. The College Anniversary will be held on the Thursday following. A concert under the directions of Wm. Aoshkar, Esq., of Halifax, will be given in the Baptist Church in the evening. Tickets by rail at reduced rates.

BETTER THAN PRESENCE OF MIND.—One of the citizens of Danbury, Conn., who had just returned from the West, was selling in Merrill's grocery store of a narrow escape he had from a terrible death. He was crossing a long railroad bridge on foot, when he was surprised to see a locomotive coming around a curve and tearing toward him at a terrific speed. The bridge was tearing, and he hid not dare to jump into the yawning abyss below. In a flash he took in the situation and formed his plan of action. He started on a swift run toward the oncoming locomotive, and when within a few feet of it he concentrated all his nerve and muscle into one effort, and leaped straight up in the air. The fatal monster shot under him, and he came down on the bridge, saved from death, but seriously shaken up by the descent. There was a moment of deep silence upon the close of this narrative, and then one of the company sighed, and shut up his knife, and unexpectedly said: "What's the use of presence of mind when a man can lie like that?"

SUICIDE AT HALIFAX.

Mr. Arthur Burnham, a clerk in the Post Office Inspector's Department, shot himself on Monday, the 15th inst. He shot himself in the head and was dead when found, his legs were hanging over the side of the building. It is supposed that he intended his body to fall into the water when the bullet cut red his head.

Mr. Burnham was a son of P. S. Burnham, Esq., Post Master of Windsor, he had been in the Post Office about ten years, and was about 23 years of age. He was attentive to his duties, a general favorite, and very much respected.

He was married a short time since. His wife is now at Philadelphia.

Domestic troubles are assigned as the cause of the sad termination of a promising life.

The dedication of the new English church is indefinitely postponed at the request of Elliott, the British Ambassador, who consulted the Minister of Police on the possible consequences of the ceremony. Sofias has been dissatisfied with the government ever since January, and the action of the Ministry, which evinced a disposition to place all religious denominations on equal footing. The first alarm felt was occasioned by the well founded reports that Sofias, and Mussulman roughs who were roused by him, were buying revolvers, daggers and other weapons. The Christians resorted to similar precautions.
