

same ancestors long, long ago. One myth says, "Many, many Winters ago there were many buffalo ; after four days a part of the buffalo turned to Indians." In some things the Indian believes himself superior to the other animals, while in many things he as truly believes himself inferior to them.

The following is a true story, that is, it is all true to the Ojibwa child, — he believes it. The story is written with no other thought than to have constantly in mind what the Ojibwa child believes about the events of his everyday life as given in the story. And the following incidents are taken directly from the common life of the tribe.
