and sows of both breeds for sale, that would do for the fall exhibitions.

MR. C. R. DICKER, Chesterfield, Ont., reports: My Berkshires are coming through the winter in good condition. I have three choice boars for service now. One, between two and three years old, has been a prize-winner, and leaves choice stock. He weighs between six and seven hundred. I have some choice eleven months old sows in farrow by him, very large for age, and some younger. I have another boar, one year old, an extra long and well built one. He weighed 344 pounds when under nine months old, and never was fitted for showing. He is leaving splendid stock. I shall have stock from both of these boars to sell this spring. I have another extra long and well built boar, bred by Messrs J. G. Snell & Bro., five months old, and seven sows bred to farrow this spring, and more to breed shortly. I purchased a Tamworth boar for service, and he was well patronized for a few months, but after that nearly all used the Berkshires. Only a few used him the second time, so I put him away. I find a great change in the minds of the farmers with regard to Yorkshires, as I have a great many coming quite a distance with their sows to the Berkshire boars, and am selling boars to take the place of Yorkshires, as my customers say they are too hard to feed, and they can get no more for them when fat than for Berkshires. I am quite satisfied to stay with the old reliable breed, the Berkshires. I am getting orders now from men I have sold to years ago. After having tried other breeds, they come back to the Berkshires as the most profitable breed. The following are some recent sales: To Mr. Angus McLean, Galt, one boar; to Mr. L. F. Goodwin, Munro, one boar; to Mr. D. A. Graham, Parkhill, one boar and one sow; to Mr. Adam, Decker Mills, Mich., one boar; to Mr. James Lallic, Ayr, one boar; to Mr. J. M. Huntly, Newmarket, one sow; to Mr. R. J. Logan, North Glanford, one boar and one sow; to Mr. Wm. Robertson, Chesterfield, one sow.

Sheep.

THE LINCOLN LONGWOOL SHEEP BREEDERS' ASSOCIATION will hold their fourth annual sale on Friday, September 6th.

MR. H. PAGE, Walmer Court, Walmer, Kent, England, whose flock of Kentish or Romney March sheep has been established since 1852, advertises the same in our columns.

MRS. WATERS & RAWLINSON, Salisbury, England, will sell during the months of July, August, and September 5000 purebred Hampshire Down sheep. See their advertisement in this issue.

THE SOUTHDOWN SHEEP BREEDERS' ASSOCIATION of England will hold their annual show and sale of rams, ram lambs, and ewes, at Chichester, England, on August 7th and 8th. A second sale will be held in September.

MR. JOHN CAMPBELL, Woodville, Ont., writes: At Fairview Farm young lambs of great promise are making their appearance. The pair of ewes which won the English Shropshire Association's special $125 prize, besides several other firsts at the World's Fair, have again dropped lambs, one each, a ram and ewe, sired by Newton Lord. They are of very choice appearance. As this pair of ewes gave last year two rams and a ewe, which for late lambs have done remarkably well, some customers are going to have sires to head their flocks worthy of their noted sire and dam. By the way, one of them is already sold in a show lot to be fitted for a Wisconsin breeder. Orders were looked early in March for several States. A good trade is expected.

MESSES. JAMES COOPER & SON, Kippin, Ont., write: In this issue of THE JOURNAL we wish to state that we have now sold off all our surplus stock, and our customers will please take note of our change of advertisement. We have made extensive sales lately, and have sold ourselves bare enough. Our flock is now reduced below the one hundred. Messrs. C. Maud & Lybrand, Wisconsin, also Mr. Dunham, of Michigan, have lately bought all our last year's surplus, both rams and ewes. Good prices have been realized. Our stock are in good shape, and the two shear ewes are mostly sucking twin lambs weighing all the way from 40 to 60 lbs. Early lambs, when properly cared for, are the secret of successful Shropshire breeding at the present time, owing to the demand for rams. No other flock is better fitted to supply young, strong, healthy sires for next fall's trade. Those wishing show lambs should make it a point to order early. Feeding and the special care of young lambs are made a specialty with us. Our undivided attention is given to sheep husbandry.

Poultry.

MR. W. H. ORNDAY, Pine Tree Farm, Jamesburg, New Jersey, whose poultry yards are well known, advertise with us.

MR. W. J. BELL, Angus, Ont., offers for sale his whole poultry business, including thirty acres of good land. This is a rare chance for beginners.

MR. W. J. STEVENSON, Oshawa, Ont., who breeds golden and white Wyandottes, white Leghorns, and white Plymouth Rocks, offers fowls and eggs for sale at very cheap rates.

MR. J. A. STEWART, Jr., Menie, Ont., writes: The sale of my Mammoth Bronze turkeys is almost beyond the supply, as I have sold all but one pair. I exhibited a number of birds at the North-west-land Poultry and Pet Stock Show, held at Colborne January 24th, 25th, and 26th, 1895, and my winnings were as follows: Mammoth Bronze turkey gobbler of 1893, 1st prize; Mammoth Bronze turkey hen of 1893, 1st prize; Mammoth Bronze turkey gobbler of 1894, 1st prize; Mammoth Bronze hen of 1894, 1st prize; Pitt Game cock, 1st prize; Pitt Game hen, 2nd prize; Pitt Game cockerel, 1st prize; Pitt Game pullet, 1st prize; Silver Spangled Hamburg cock, 1st prize; Silver Spangled Hamburg hen, 1st prize.
