

SHIPMENT OF TROTGING STOCK TO SCOTLAND.

The steamer State of Georgia, which left this port last week for Glasgow, Scotland, took out a shipment of Kentucky-bred trotting stock, purchased for Mr. John Dick, of Andover. The stock consists of eight head in all and were bred and raised on the Woodbun Stud Farm, Kentucky. There are two brood mares: the first is the bay mare Victoria, 16 1/2 hands, foaled 1869, by the Bowman Horse, dam Celeste, by Mambrino Chief; 2nd dam Big Nora, by Downing's Messenger; 3rd dam Mrs. Caudle (the dam of Ericson). The other is the bay mare Bayadere, 15 1/2 hands, foaled 1868, by Bay Chief (son of Mambrino Chief) dam by Alexander's Pilot, Jr., 2nd dam a fast road mare of unknown blood. Then there are four colts and two fillies, viz.: Bay colt, 2 years old, by Alexander's Belmont (son of Alexander's Abdallah), dam Judith, by Mambrino Chief; 2nd dam by Zenith (thoroughbred, son of American Eclipse). The second is a bay colt, 2 years old, by Harold (son of Rysdyk's Hambletonian, out of Enchantress, by old Abdallah), dam Daphne, by Mambrino Chief; 2nd dam by Peters' Halcorn; 3rd dam by Tom Jefferson; 4th dam by Whip. The third is a bay colt, 2 years old, by Belmont, dam Mambrino, by Alexander's Abdallah; 2nd dam Black Rose (dam of Native American, Darkness, Hermosa, Lady Woodlawn, &c.), by Tom Teemer; 3rd dam by Cannon's Whip; 4th dam by Robin Grey. The fourth is a bay colt, yearling, by Harold, dam Bayadere, by Alexander's Abdallah (as above). The fillies are both bays, one and two years old, by Belmont, out of Victoria, by the Bowman Horse (as above). The young stock are all of fine size and look very promising. As will be seen from above brief description, they are descended from trotting families of good repute, and if well trained and properly handled will doubtless do credit to their breeder and to their famous ancestry. Mr. Dick made a purchase of trotting stock, in the Blue Grass region of Kentucky, a year or two ago, and, as he has repeated his venture, the inference is that the former shipment resulted successfully. It is gratifying to know that there is a demand for our trotting stock in foreign markets.—T., F. and Form.

PRODUCE.—July 20, b f by Rysdyk, he by Rysdyk's Hambleton; dam a Royal George mare. Mare will be bred back to him again this season.—JAMES MCKAY, Victoria Road, Ont.
