POPULAR NEW BOOK.

HOURS IN A LIBRARY.

By LESLIE STEPHEN. One vol., 12mo, Cloth. $1.75.

CONTENTS: De Foo's Novels—Richardson's Novels—Pope as a Moralist—Mr. Elwyn's Edition of Pope—Some Words about Sir Walter Scott—Nathaniel Hawthorne—Balzac's Novels—Do Quincey.

The taking title of this volume is most admirably sustained by its contents. "De Foo's Novels," "Richardson's Novels," "Pope as a Moralist," "Some Words about Sir Walter Scott," "Nathaniel Hawthorne," "Balzac's Novels," and "Do Quincey," are the authors and the subjects discussed. No recent writer has developed the true critical instinct at all in the degree which this volume proves that Mr. Leslie Stephen possesses it. His judgments are the result of the closest and most careful study. They are, moreover, comprehensive, and are expressed in a style so incisive and brilliant as to place their author in the front rank of living essayists. Hours in a Library cannot fail to be received here, as it has been in England, as the most notable volume in critical literature lately published.

These works sent, postpaid, to any address, on receipt of the price by the publishers,
