WHAT THEY ARE SAYING.

J. H. BEST, Balmoral, Ont.:—I have not been fortunate "in prizes" in your competitions, but I get TRUTH, which is indeed "a prize of itself."

MISS ANNY ALLEN, Le Mars, Iowa, U.S.:—We like TRUTH ever so much, and there is a rush for it every week as soon as it is brought from the office. It reminds us so strongly of our former Canadian home that it would be welcome any way, but it is much more so when it is such a treat for all as it is.

G. B. MURNA, Ayl, Ont.:—Please accept my thanks for the silver plated tea pot which I won in Competition No. 11, it is a great deal better than I expected. Hoping you will pardon me for not writing sooner and wishing TRUTH every success.

DAVID DAVIDSON, Galt, Ont.:—Permit me to acknowledge, with thanks the receipt of the brooch received by me. I wish you all success.

MARY A. MOORE, 71 Victoria St., Hamilton.—Please accept my sincere thanks for the beautiful ring which I was fortunate enough to win in Competition No. 12. It greatly exceeds my expectations.

MISS E. L. FOWLER, Toronto.—I beg to return you my sincere thanks for the silver plate cake basket won in your Bible competition. It is certainly very pretty, and I am much pleased with it.

MRS. R. J. FISH, Linwood, Ont.:—Permit me to acknowledge with many thanks, the very pretty plated butter knife just received, rewarded me in TRUTH competition No. 11. I am much pleased with it, also with your interesting little paper, and wish it every success.

M. BISHOP, Wyeval, Ont.:—With pleasure I acknowledge the receipt of the gold brooch awarded me in TRUTH competition No. 12, with which I am well pleased.

Mrs. E. RAYMOND, 173 Kent St., London, Ont.:—I beg to acknowledge with many thanks the receipt of the handsome gold watch, awarded me in TRUTH Bible Competition No. 11. At the same time accept sincere wishes for the continued prosperity which TRUTH so well merits.

JOSEPH HINDS, Colborne, Ont., writes:—I like TRUTH immensely. I take great pleasure in reading its "musings." For those who cannot raise their mind above a bonnet, there is the "chit-chat on the fashions," something to discuss over the five o'clock teas. For the more thoughtful of the young people, the "Scriptural Enigmas," a splendid discipline for the mind. For feverish, impetuous youth, the old, old love story, that never will be divested of interest. May its steadily increasing circulation continue until it shall become the leading periodical, not only in the Dominion, but in fair America.

LIZZIE RICHARDS, Lucknow, Ont.:—The brooch awarded to me in TRUTH Competition No. 11, came safely to hand, for which accept my thanks.

Mrs. T. BUSEY, Farmersville, Ont.:—I acknowledge the receipt of the coin silver Hunting case watch, awarded me in Competition No. 11. It proves to be a good timekeeper. Please accept thanks.

GE. W. REID, Port Dalhousie, Ont.:—Permit me, with thanks, to acknowledge the receipt of Cyclopaedia awarded me as prize No. 160, in Competition No. 11 of TRUTH Bible Questions. I am pleased with the book, as it contains a great amount of valuable information. Wishing you every success.
