

Indigestion

It is not only a distressing complaint, of itself, but, by causing the blood to become depraved and the system enfeebled, is the parent of innumerable maladies. That Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best cure for Indigestion, even when complicated with Liver Complaint, is proved by the following testimony from Mrs. Joseph Lake, of Brockway Centre, Mich.:—

"Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony, was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an improvement in my condition. My appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions, I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life."

The End.

Hush! they are ended;
Ended for aye;
All things that blended
Into her day.

Hush! She is sleeping
Calm at the last,
Laughter and weeping
Over and past.

Vain to recall now
Words that were said,
Ended is all now;
Gladys is dead.

Whisper! Above her,
Hovering near,
Angels who love her
Watch o'er the bier.

Peace! We must leave her
Calmly to go;
Peace! It would grieve her
Seeing our woe.

Heap earth, and cover
Two lives that blend;
I was her lover;
This is the end.

On the clock of the town of Bala, North Wales, is the following inscription:
Here I stand both day and night,
To tell the hours with all my might;
So then example take by me,
And serve thy God as I serve thee.

This life a theater we well may call,
Where every actor must perform with art
Or laugh it through and make a farce of all,
Or learn to hear with grace his tragic part.
