ST. LAWRENCE HALL
MONTREAL

For the past thirty years, this Hotel, familiarly known as the "St. Lawrence," has been a "household word" to all travellers on the continent of North America, and has been patronized by all the Royal and noble personages who have visited the City of Montreal.

This Hotel has been recently re-taken by MR. HENRY HOGAN, the former proprietor, who has handsomely and appropriately decorated and renovated the interior, and completely refitted the whole of the apartments with new furniture.

The Hotel is admirably situated, being in the very heart of the City, and contiguous to the General Post Office, the principal Banks, Public Buildings, Law Courts, Commercial Exchanges, Railway and Telegraph Office.

The Hotel will be managed BY MR. SAMUEL MONTGOMERY, under the immediate personal supervision of MR. HOGAN, than whom no one is better qualified to conduct an hotel of such magnitude as the St. Lawrence Hall, and than whom no one has gained a better reputation as an obliging, generous and considerate host.

Intercolonial Railway
Sunday Evening Special Passenger Train.

To accommodate returning Saturday excursionists, a Special Passenger Train will leave Coaticook at 10.30 o'clock, and Rivière du Loup at 11.15 o'clock, on SUNDAY, July 14th, and every subsequent Sunday evening until further notice, for Quebec, stopping at St. Paschal, Ste. Anne, L'Islet, St. Thomas and St. Charles, to take on passengers.
