

A. M. Boyle, '02, has resumed work in the general.

Several of last year's lady graduates are taking fourth year Astronomy lectures this year. John L. McPherson has suddenly decided that he too needs Astronomy before his university course will be complete. Strange coincidence, isn't it?

"Andy" Justice has turned up at last, and we're all glad to see him back. His friends feared that "something dreadful had happened" to detain him away up in the Rainy River District, where he has been all summer on a mission field.

Dr. Needler appeared on the first days of the term with a piratical-looking black patch on his eye. We are informed, however, that the hidden organ had come in contact with nothing worse than an oculist, and that the Doctor has had no thought of betaking himself to road-agency either on sea or land. We are glad to see that the patch has been discarded for some time.

"Freddie" Broder reports a very enjoyable time at the Trinity dinner. Strangely enough he was unable to play football against the Dents the next day! It certainly must have been a "dry" dinner.

McFarland at the "Lit": "We go out on Hallowe'en for a night's fun. We don't want simply to walk to the theatre and back again like the Salvation Army!"

The final touch

In France an artist is held as high as a statesman or noble.

Worth for a long time stood high above all others as a fashion artist. His ingenuity and inspiration dwelt in the final touches. That is Semi-ready's forte in clothes for gentlemen.

It is the final touch which puts individuality into every garment.

No two "Semi-ready" garments are finished exactly alike, because no two men possess exactly the same characteristics.

Hence, made-to-order excellence, without made-to-order prices.

Suits and Overcoats, $12, $15, $18, $20 and $25.
Made by specialists. Sold in 13 "Semi-ready" Wardrobes, managed by ex-custom-tailors.
