

(2) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, persons under the jurisdiction of either Party may supply to or receive from persons under the jurisdiction of the other Party nuclear material, non-nuclear material, equipment and technology, on commercial or other terms as may be agreed by the persons concerned.

(3) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, persons under the jurisdiction of either Party may provide persons under the jurisdiction of the other Party with technical training in the application of nuclear energy for peaceful uses on commercial or other terms as may be agreed by the persons concerned.

(4) In accordance with their respective laws and regulations, the Parties will make efforts to facilitate exchanges of experts, technicians and specialists related to activities under this Agreement.

(5) The Parties shall take all appropriate precautions in accordance with their respective laws and regulations to preserve the confidentiality of information, including commercial and industrial secrets, transferred between persons under the jurisdiction of either Party.

(6) The Parties may, if appropriate and subject to terms and conditions to be mutually determined, collaborate on safety and regulatory aspects of the production of nuclear energy including (a) exchange of information and (b) technical co-operation and training.

(7) A Party shall not use the provisions of this Agreement for the purpose of securing commercial advantage or for the purpose of hampering the commercial relations of the other Party.

(8) The cooperation contemplated by this Agreement shall be in accordance with the laws, regulations, licensing requirements and policies in force in Canada and in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

ARTICLE IV

(1) Nuclear material, non-nuclear material, equipment and technology specified in Annex D shall be subject to this Agreement unless otherwise decided by the Parties.
