

Furthermore, the amount of refund credit received for taxable income below 3 per cent of the capital employed in the business with the exception of such and all other such borrowed money other than money borrowed from authorized banks and credit unions. However, the 3 per cent capital employed may be reduced by an interest paid on money borrowed from sources other than authorized banks and credit unions.

August 1960
RVA