

EXTRADITION TREATY
BETWEEN
THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA
AND
THE GOVERNMENT OF THE HELLENIC REPUBLIC

THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE HELLENIC REPUBLIC, reaffirming their respect for each other's judicial institutions; and

DESIRING to make more effective their co-operation in the suppression of crime through the extradition of persons charged with or convicted of offences;

HAVE AGREED as follows:

ARTICLE 1

Obligation to Extradite

Each Contracting State agrees to extradite to the other, in accordance with the provisions of this Treaty, any person found on the territory of one state who is wanted for prosecution or the imposition or enforcement of a sentence by the authorities of the other State.

ARTICLE 2

Extraditable Offences

1. Extradition shall be granted for conduct which, under the laws of both Contracting States, is punishable by imprisonment for more than one year. Moreover, where a sentence of imprisonment or other deprivation of liberty has been imposed by the courts of the Requesting State, extradition shall be granted only if a period of at least six months of the penalty remains to be served.
2. For the purposes of determining the existence of an offence within the meaning of paragraph 1 of this Article, the totality of the acts alleged against the person shall be taken into account, without regard to the elements of the offence prescribed by the law of the Requesting State and regardless of whether the Contracting States place the acts constituting the offence within the same category of offence or denominate the offence by the same or similar terminology.
3. If the request for extradition relates to a sentence of both imprisonment, as provided in paragraph 1, and a pecuniary sanction, the Requested State may also grant extradition for the enforcement of the pecuniary sanction.
