

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The bill proposes to amend the existing section enumerating the several persons exempted from liability to serve in the Militia, by striking out "Members of the Naval Militia", a non-existent service, "Professors in colleges and universities", and Persons who, from the doctrines of their religion, are averse to bearing arms or rendering personal military service, under such conditions as are prescribed".