

Hansard printed. Apparently it is going to be available only tomorrow. I would simply suggest that, if that occurs again in the future, the calendar not move until Hansard is available. For example, today, I wanted to respond to Senator Marshall's comments, but because I did not have his excellent statement of yesterday in print form there was no way I could do that and risk misinterpreting or distorting his words. I simply put that in the pile with everything else.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS

COMMITTEE AUTHORIZED TO MEET DURING SITTING OF SENATE

Hon. John B. Stewart pursuant to notice of March 17, 1992, moved:

That the Standing Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs have power to sit at four thirty o'clock in the afternoon, on Tuesdays, March 24 and 31 and April 7, 1992, even though the Senate may then be sitting, and that Rule 96(4) be suspended in relation thereto.

Motion agreed to.

SOCIAL AFFAIRS, SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

MOTION TO AUTHORIZE COMMITTEE TO STUDY NFB FILM
PRESENTATION—DEBATE ADJOURNED

Hon. Jack Marshall pursuant to notice of March 17, 1992,
moved:

That the Standing Committee on Social Affairs, Science and Technology be authorized to examine the contents of the CBC/NFB series "The Valour and the Horror" and report upon the said production to determine the authenticity of the three part series, viz., Savage Christmas: Hong Kong 1941; Death by Moonlight: Bomber Command; and In Desperate Battle: Normandy 1944, due to the mounting unfavourable reaction of the said production.

On motion of Senator Molgat, debate adjourned.
The Senate adjourned until tomorrow at 2 p.m.
