Major-General J. H. Elmsley,
Adjutant-General,
Militia Department,
Ottawa.

My dear Elmsley:-

Herewith please find a letter from J. V. Price of Sturgeon Falls, Ont.

Can you tell me why he was forced to pay his own passage from London, England, to his home in Canada. When you answer will you please return Price's letter.

With all good wishes, I am,

Yours faithfully,
