"No man who knows the splendor of scientific achievement can remain neutral with regard to religion. He must extend his method into it, or, if that is impossible, oppose it to the knife."—Preface.

"Its originality will make it almost a revelation."—Christian Union.

"If you read only one book this year, let it be 'Natural Law in the Spiritual World.'"—American Institute of Christian Philosophy.

"This is one of those rare books which find a new point of view from which old things themselves become new."—Chicago Standard.

"Too much cannot be said in praise of it, and those who fail to read it will suffer a serious loss."—The Churchman.

"The enchantments of an unspeakably fascinating volume by Professor Drummond have had an exhilarating effect each time we have opened its pages or thought over its delightful contents."—Clergyman's Magazine.

"This is a remarkable and important book. The theory it enounces may, without exaggeration, be termed a discovery. It is difficult to say whether the scientific or the religious reader will be the most surprised and delighted as he reads."—Aberdeen Free Press.

"This is a most original and ingenious book, instructive and suggestive in the highest degree. . . . It is wholly out of our power to do justice to the many points in this book that press for notice."—Nonconformist.
