

every three natives enlisted in the rest of the country. Not too bad for an element which counts for one-fourth of the whole population.

The following excerpt from the above gives more particulars about recruiting in the Province of Quebec:—

	Number enlisted	Canadian born	French Canadians	British and Foreign born
Province of Quebec—English Battalions:
14th—Lt. Col. Meighen.....	1,173	521	274	652
42th—Lt. Col. Cantlie.....	1,018	281	30	737
60th—Lt. Col. Gascoigne.....	1,393	454	88	939
73rd—Lt. Col. Davidson.....	1,071	410	22	661
24th—Lt. Col. Gunn.....	1,175	377	27	798
P. P. C. L. I. (McGill Univer- sity).....	1,151	632	2	519
	6,981	2,675	443	4,306

Canadian Born: 39 per cent.

	Number enlisted	Canadian born	French Canadians	British and Foreign born
Province of Quebec—French- Canadian Batt'ns:
22nd—Lt. Col. Gaudet.....	1,171	1,122	1,124	47
41st and Reinf. Draft—Lt. Col. Archambault.....	1,360	1,057	1,001	303
57th and Reinf. Draft.....	704	515	438	189
69th—Lt. Col. Dansereau.....	1,068	786	680	282
150th—Lt. Col. Barré.....	667	598	538	69
163rd—Lt. Col. Desrosiers....	892	795	726	97
189th—Lt. Col. Piuze.....	760	713	604	47
167 Reinf. Draft.....	83	69	64	14
178th Reinf. Draft.....	46	42	41	4
206th Reinf. Draft.....	345	314	281	31
	7,096	6,013	5,496	1,083

Canadian Born: 85 per cent

There have been 15 French Canadian battalions of infantry commandeered so far, including the above, viz: 22nd, 41st, 57th, 69th, 150th, 163rd, 165th, 167th, 178th, 189th, 206th, 230th, 233rd, to which may be added the 171st ($\frac{1}{3}$ French,