DOUBLE TROUNCING FOR POOR LUCKLESS LEAFS

Harrisburg Captured the Holiday Bill --- Morning Game Went Eleven Innings and a Home Run Broke it Up---Old Wyatt Lee Came to Life To Trim the Leafs in the Afternoon.

The Leafs are back in the old rut. The holiday bill was sorrowful. Harrisburg captured both fixtures, the morning game 4 to 1 and the afternoon contest 1 to 0.

Failure to deliver the punch at the critical time tells the story. Time without number the locals had chances, but the base hit was conspicuous by its absence. To make matters worse, it was the ever-green Wyatt Lee that rubbed it into us in the afternoon game. The morning session went 11 innings and a home run scored three for the visitors in this round.

Motordrome Results

The holiday meet at the Motordrome was full of thrills. The crowd of spectators not only witnessed some excellent tators not only witnessed some excellent racing, but a couple of sensational spills that were not on the program furnished the real excitement of the night.

Ilmmy MacNeal, the Omaha motorcycle rider, had a bad looking tumble in the final heat of the special series with Larry Fleckenstein of Denver, Col. While traveling at over 95 miles an hour, the front tire of the Omaha man's machine blew out and MacNeal was thrown from the steep wall to the track below. It was another of those "the hit that failed to materialize" contests. Goodness knows the Leafs had many a chance, but the old base rap could never be found when needed.

It was pitful to watch the locals popping Wyatt Lee's puny curve up in the air. In five out of the nine innings one solid poke would have sent a run scampering over the plate.

The Leafs went to the front early. Gilled bert dumped down a hit to deep second man up in the second, rapped for a corner, but Wares hit into a double play. North-Enders Turn Tables on the Indians-Officials Have Jack Carmichael had their hands full all afternoon, and came in for a considerable amount of criticism from the Tecumesh supporters, but to the unbiased their rulings seemed to be very fair. While the lacrosse put up was not of the very best, there were flashes that showed they desired. Altho Rosedale took a commanding lead in the second quarter, and the 1000 spectators stayed until the last gong sounded. The Rosedale defence put it all over the Indian home, while Kalls, Barnett and Fitzgerald were the stars of the home.

Kalls took first blood for the Blue Shirts. Durkin evened it up, and Donihee put the Indians one to the good, and the crowd settled down with the expectation of having a good afternoon's sport, but the procession to the clubhouse started, and Rosedale went to the front and were neaded. GAME TO ROSEDALES

Busy Time

Rosedale took their revenge on the Indians yesterday at the north end grounds for their defeat of a week ago. They trimmed the islanders to the tune of 9 to 4 in the scrappiest game seen in Toronto in years. Roach of Cornwall and Jack Carmichael had their hands full all the crowd settled down with the expectation of having a good afternoon's sport, but the procession to the clubhouse started, and Rosedale went to the front and were never headed. Graydon pulled down a five-minute penalty, and shortly afterwards McKenzie got ten minutes, and Harrison came up from the defence and evened up the score. In the second quarter the Tecumsens drew fifty minutes in penalties to Rosedale's five, and Rosedale scored four times to one for the Indians, making the half-time score 6 to 3. Kalls and Fitz pulled one of their old-time stunts for the neatest play of the day and Fitz scored the only goal of the third quarter. The fourth quarter was another scrappy one. Right at the start Fitzgerald got a twenty-minute penalty, and Felker and Whitehead got ten minutes each for fighting. A couple of minutes later Green and Donihee mixed it up and were sent to the fence, and Querrie followed a minute later. Warwick and Barnett scored for Rosedale, and Carmichael added another for Tecumsehs.

Toronto Team Should Lift the Connaught Cup - The Game in Detail

Lancashire (Toronto) 3, Grand Trunk (Montreal) 6. The above teams met at the Varsity Stadium yesterday in the first of the home and home games for the Connaught Cup. Between three and four thousand spectators were present, as well as 400 officers and men of the Body Guards, who were present as the guests of the D.F.A. During the game the sum of $120 was collected for the Sportsman's Patriotic Association.

The game:

At this period Orr had to retire for repairs. During his absence McLeish came within an ace of scoring with a lovely shot which kept Laycock guessing to clear. Laycock brought off a brilliant save and put the ball out to Arden, who went thru on his own and forced a corner, which Hammitt headed over the bar. A foul against Trunks for handling looked dangerous, but Payne cleared with a huge punt. Hamutt forced another corner, and the same player took the kick. The ball ran along the crossbar and out of play (a lucky escape for the Trunks). Orr, who had returned, got hurt and had to retire again. Art Jones missed a glorious chance to open the scoring when he shot wildly over the bar. The whistle blew for the initial, neither side having scored.
