

3. Has a corporation constituted by a provincial legislature with power to carry on a fire insurance business, there being no stated limitation as to the locality within which the business may be carried on, power or capacity to make and execute contracts:

- (a) within the incorporating province insuring property outside the province;
- (b) outside of the incorporating province insuring property within the province;
- (c) outside of the incorporating province insuring property outside of the province?

Has such a corporation power or capacity to insure property situate in a foreign country, or to make an insurance contract within a foreign country?

Do the answers to the foregoing inquiries, or any and which of them, depend upon whether or not the owner of the property or risk insured is a citizen or resident of the incorporating province?

4. If in any or all of the above mentioned cases (a), (b) and (c) the answer be negative, would the corporation have throughout Canada the power of capacity mentioned in any and which of the said cases on availing itself of the Insurance Act, R.S.C. 1906, c. 34, as provided by s. 4, sub-s. 3?

Is the enactment, R.S.C. 1906, c. 34, s. 4, sub-s. 3, intra vires of the Parliament of Canada?

5. Can the powers of a company incorporated by a provincial legislature be enlarged, and to what extent, either as to locality or objects by

- (a) the Dominion Parliament?
- (b) the legislature of another Province?

6. Has the legislature of a province power to prohibit companies incorporated by the Parliament of Canada from carrying on business within the province unless or until the companies obtain a license so to do from the government of the province,
