

was much troubled with drowsiness. Immediately after adopting your system, my fat began to disappear, my appetite improved, and, after a few months, my weight was reduced to one hundred and sixty pounds, and my circumference to thirty-two inches. My health is now excellent. Being landlord of the Golden Lion Hotel, at Marle, where the stages put up, my recovery is known to a great many; and travellers who stopped at my house two years ago, when I was labouring under obesity, on seeing me at present, and noticing the wonderful change which has taken place, invariably ask by what means it has been effected.

“It always affords me great pleasure to acknowledge that my cure is due to your system of treatment.

“I have the honour to be, &c.,

“JULES WIMY.

“Golden Lion Hotel,

“Marle, Aisne.”

A person who visited Marle about four months ago, and who had not seen M. Wimpy since the great change had been effected in his appearance, was much astonished, and made inquiries respecting the cure. Some time afterwards, this person met, at Orleans, a wealthy