THE A. O. F .- IMPORTANT JUDG-

MENT. Mr. Justice Street has given judgment in the second trial of Cerri vs. Ancient Order of Foresters, awarding Mrs. Cerri, the widow of a furrier on Richmond street, Toronto, the $1,000 together with the costs of the action. The case was first heard at the win-ter assiezs of 1895, the contention of the A. O. F. being that Mr. Cerri knew he had dropsy before he applied for the insurance policy, and that he then gave incorrect answers, both about his age, and the state of his health. A judgment was given for Mrs. Cerri, but a new trial was obtained on the ground that Mr. Cerri had stated that the was born in 1847, whilst 1846 was the real date. The judgment just given by Mr. Justice Street, however, decides that this mistake was made in good faith, and that, therefore, it did not vitiate the policy.
