Those who followed the hounds described the run as one of the most enjoyable ever held. Considerable distance was covered, and the jumps, though stiff ones, were in every case well situated and well taken. Major

Smith acted as master, and Mr. Geo.

Gibbons, jun., filled the post of huntsman very creditably. The youthful whip won the praises of everyone for the manner in which the dogs were kept together. The other riders were: Mr. G. C. Gibbons, Mr. W. T. Strong, Mr. Napkin, Mr. Hugh Niven, Mr. K.

McCormick, Mr. J. Kilgour, Mr. Pigott and Mr. P. Smith. The run started in front of the Ladies' College, and ran parallel with the river for half a mile, and then crosesd to the northern bank

Contractor Mills will be through with all but a time he expects to have all the walls completed. All the frames are here and only a portion of the south wing remains to be built. Although he will be practically through with the gang then, a few men will be engaged for some time building gable ends and putting in concrete floors, etc. it not been for the delay with the frames," said Mr. Mills to a reporter. 'we would have had the walls up by last Wednesday."

Mr. Donaldson, the Hamilton man who has the contract for the carpenter work, has a force of 25 men working under him, all of whom are London men but two. They have been laying the wall plates and manufacturing the trusses for the roof. In the plates alone there of 22,000 feet of lumber. Nearly all of the trusses are framed, and Mr. Donaldson says they start raising them on Monday next. In the open space between the two wings of the shops is about 400,000 feet of large timber, most of it ready to be put into place on the building. The carpenter work will be finished by Christmas, if the weather is favorable. The painters, too, are at work, and nearly all the window and door frames have had a coat of dark red paint. FOOD RIOT IN INDIA

Four Men Shot Dead by the Police and Bombay, Nov. 9.-Serious rioting occurred yesterday at Sholapur. A band of 5,000 men looted 1,500 bags of grain. The efforts of the police were of no avail, and therefore they fired upon the mob, killing four men and wounding six. A further outbreak is feared, as Sholapur is one of the worst famine tracts of the Presidency.
