GARDINI WILL SING AT GRAND THURSDAY

Concerning Miss Nell Gardini, the celebrated French soprano (Metropolitan Opera Company), the Chicago Tribune, in a review of a song recital by this artist: "She has a most beautiful fresh voice, mellow and dramatic. In addition, her singing is a delightful personality, and was received with unusual enthusiasm. At the close of the concert the singer was applauded and applauded, and finally sang 'The Year's at the Spring,' and so beautifully that a repetition was demanded.
Miss Gardini will sing two operatic arias and two groups of songs at the Grand next Thursday evening, the 14th, the occasion of the concert of the Musical Art Society Symphony Orchestra, Mr. A. D. Jordan, conductor. The orchestra will number 50 players and will present to the people of London a program of symphonic music. The final rehearsals are showing what may be accomplished by a body of instrumentalists and the guidance of a talented director. A splendid performance is assured. Miss Wynne Pyle, the gifted and beautiful young American pianist, will play Liszt's very brilliant and most interesting Concerto in E flat for piano, accompanied by the orchestra. Miss Pyle will also be heard on the Chicago Daily News says of Miss Pyle: "Sympathy marks her style of performance. The auditor glimpses a pleasant personality through her playing. Miss Pyle's ability to make the Brahms variations interesting is a sure proof of her solid foundation of musical knowledge." Plan for this concert is now open at the Grand Opera House. Course ticket holders plan at Heintzman's.

WHO ARE DRAFTED
MAY CHOOSE UNIT

Honorably Discharged or Rejected To Have Privilege.

MUST JOIN FIGHTERS

Cannot Go With A. S. C. or Forestry or Railway Construction Forces.

Drafted men who have previously served in the Canadian Expeditionary Force in Canada and have been honorably discharged, therefrom, or evidence that they tried to enlist in the C. E. F. prior to October 13, 1917, and were refused enlistment on account of physical unfitness, may have the privilege of being transferred to any combatant unit they choose.

Regulations published in camp orders state that this privilege may be recorded such men, as has been done for some time in the case of men who are liable for service, but who report before being ordered to do so.

The Army Service Corps and the Forestry and Railway Construction Corps are not included in the list of branches of the service which such men may be transferred to. The unit chosen must be up to its full establishment, and the man must be considered suitable for it, the orders state.

Must Have Certificate

Drafted men who claim the right to be relieved from service on the ground of being citizens of the United States, and therefore exempt from the operation of the military service act, must produce a United States citizenship certificate signed by the United States consul-general at Ottawa, before they can be struck off the strength as "erroneously ordered to report," according to the latest regulations.

LONDON MOTOR CLUB ACCOMPLISHED MUCH
DURING PAST YEAR

Splendid Reports Presented at the Annual Meeting.

More than one hundred automobile owners attended the annual banquet of the London Motor Club, held at the Technicon Hotel last night. The evening's program included the election of officers for the ensuing year, and a demonstration of the club's headlight lenses for the elimination of glare. B. McKinnon was the club's choice of the club for president.
J. Robertson, secretary of the Ontario Motor League, addressed the club on subjects of interest to motor owners. He referred to the work of the Ontario Motor League during the past year. The number of American tourists in Canada and the number of Canadian cars owned touring the States has been doubled as a result of the campaign launched by the Ontario Motor League, which resulted in legislation for the exchange of licenses.

"Motor cars have long since ceased to be children's toys," the speaker said. "They have become vehicles of utility, used by all classes of people." Mr. Robertson said that the anomaly of prohibiting the sale of gasoline on Sundays is becoming more evident each day. He declared that the Government would have to take action on future legislation to make allowance for the sale of gasoline. The recognition of the utility of the motor car among farmers is becoming more evident each day. The speaker stated. There are now 10,000 motor cars in the Ontario Ontario Motor League, which resulted
censes.

Winter Rheumatism

Rheumatism is a disorder of the blood.
It attacks people when the blood is overcharged with acid and impurities, thus setting up inflammation in the muscles and joints. Wet weather or cold weather may start the tortures of rheumatism, but it is not the cause. The cause is in the blood, and the blood only. Victims of this winter malady have every reason to fear the first dull ache in the limbs and joints, followed by sharp pains through the flesh and muscles; these are the symptoms of rheumatism. It is the blood which may leave the victim pain-racked and helpless.

There is only one way to cure rheumatism, and that is through the blood.
Liniments, hot applications and rubbing may give temporary ease, but cannot possibly root the trouble out of the system. That can only be done by the rich, red, new blood which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make. This new blood drives the impurities and the rheumatism out of the system. If you are a sufferer from this painful malady begin curing yourself today by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and see how soon the pains and stiffness of the joints fade away, leaving behind new energy and new health.
You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

At the Majestic Wednesday and Thursday.
Julian Eltinge, the famous feminine impersonator, is again taking the role of a woman in "The Widow's Might." This is a charmingly humorous story of the adventures of young Dick Tavish who sets himself up as a rancher, only to learn that an older hand at the game is going to beat him. How he wins out, with the help of a wig, a baby and an exceedingly pretty girl, makes an unexpectedly refreshing and original picture.

London's first Child Welfare Exhibit, which opened yesterday in the Y. M.
C. A. Building and Auditorium, is already an assured success. In the evening, the exhibit was crowded with a happy, happy, happy crowd. The exhibit is a revelation. Many people attended hitherto to realize there were so many babies in London, or that London's crop of babies was well worth every possible effort to save for healthy, vigorous children.

Yesterday 107 babies were examined in the clinics.
Looking upon the exhibit of motherhood, Dr. Ferguson referred to the responsibility of the physician and the nurse in preparing for the birth of a child. The exhibit is a revelation. Many people

COFFEE
PATRICIA

That Mary Pickford is still the supreme drawing-card in motion picturedom was evidenced by the hundreds that packed the Patricia Theatre to capacity at all performances on Monday. This famous little star will be seen all this week at the Patricia in her latest production, "Stella Maris."

The story of Stella Maris gives to Miss Pickford the most tenderly appealing role in which she has ever appeared on the screen. For the first time in her career she plays a double role, the characters of Stella Maris, who has been a paralytic for many years, and in a home of wealth, surrounded by every luxury, and with the tender and devotion of the circle of friends who are worshippers at the "court of Stella Maris," the bedroom where none without smiles are allowed to enter, and where world-wisdom and care have no place; and that of Unity Blake, a veritable ugly duckling, the slave of an orphanage, living on the scraps and dressing in the rags which are given to her in the name of charity.

In this latter role Miss Pickford appears with curls straightened out and hair braided down against a dirty face and over a hunched shoulder. This unsightly character forms a remarkable contrast to that of the beautiful Stella Maris.

Through an amazing chain of circumstances, the two girls—the ugly duckling and the delicate and beautiful Stella Maris—love the same man, and then comes a supreme sacrifice, the giving of Unity Blake's life for the man she loves and for Stella Maris.
The portrayal of two characters so vastly different by Mary Pickford has appeared and provided great scope for Miss Pickford's ability as an actress.

In addition to the above production a Mack-Sennett comedy, "Roping Her Romance," and the seventh episode of "Who Is My Man?" are shown. An excellent vaudeville act included in the program makes up a highly creditable entertainment.

MAJESTIC

Pauline Frederick in "Mrs. Dane's Defence," a photoplay based upon the great stage success of the same name, attracted capacity audiences to every performance at the Majestic Theatre on Monday. The same production will be shown again today, matinee and night.

"Mrs. Dane's Defence" is without a doubt the best screen production in which this famous emotional actress has appeared and provides great scope for Miss Frederick's ability as an actress.

The play is one abounding in situations that are poignant in their intensity and the character of Mrs. Dane is one that suits Pauline Frederick's dramatic technique to a marked degree.
From the point of the loyal and devoted wife, the play leads to the transition to the part of Mrs. Dane is no slight one, but with her remarkable versatility and her ability to conceive a character rapidly and accurately, Miss Frederick is able to have brought to the screen interpretation of the role a degree of artistry seldom equalled and never exceeded.

A cast of exceptional excellence has been provided to support the star, including Frank Losee, who has been appearing with Marguerite Clark in that star's "Baby" photoplays, three in number so far.

The costumes in "Mrs. Dane's Defence" are particularly noteworthy. In the gowns worn by Miss Frederick herself being of more than usual splen-dour. The last gown, which she wore in the last few scenes is one of the most elaborate of her entire collection.
The last gown is a masterpiece of no less than 125 frocks before she was suited with that one of pale lavender and silver brocade, which even at that had to be made over entirely.

In vaudeville Weber and Ridnor present an act of the highest order. This is a big-time vaudeville act and one of the best singing and dancing acts ever seen in this city. Miss Ridnor is known in theatrical circles as "the girl with the $300 wardrobe." Both are artists in their line.

ASIATIC LABOR IS NOT NEEDED HERE,
SAYS CONTRACTOR

Conditions Do Not Warrant Importation, Is Claimed.

L. H. Martyn, of L. H. Martyn & Co., past president of the London Builders' Exchange, does not see the need of importing labor of any kind to this city at present. Informed of the resolution, passed by the Montreal Association of Builders, that the limited importation of Asiatic labor, under well-defined regulations, to assist in the construction of fuel and products of the mines as well as transportation, he replied that there are plenty of laborers here for demand. He expressed the belief that there would be enough men to take care of all the work on the railways during the coming year, London builders, he says, will not take any action along the lines of the Montreal builders. Building shows little prospects of any possible boom, but Mr. Martyn says that it is not open up. Recalling last year's conditions he said that a year ago there was no sign of building, but there was a fair season nevertheless.
However he is positive that there will be no lack of laborers, and even if there were the importation of Asiatics would be neither feasible nor wise. He thinks the laborers would be of little use on the farms or railways. Bringing them into the country would be detrimental rather than otherwise, he believes.

RENDERED UNCONSCIOUS BY HEAVY FALL OF ICE

Redan Street Man Injured While Working at Church.

Knocked unconscious by ice falling off the roof, A. D. Park of 27 Redan street fell off a ladder on which he was standing, a distance of 20 feet, about day afternoon, and received cuts on his face and head and many severe bruises.
He is a member of the group of the committee of Hyatt Avenue Methodist Church, and assisted by C. Myrick and T. Harton, was investigating the cause of the roof leaking. A ladder had been placed against the eaves on the west side of the church, and Mr. Park went up to see what was the matter with it.
He received a few minor bruises, and C. Myrick escaped unscathed.
