GOLF CLUB GIVES $200

Thanksgiving Day Tourney Adds That Much to the Treasury Funds.

Veterans' Association has decided to put off the campaign for funds for the home for returned and the large transfer and the large transf home for returned soldiers until after the campaign for the British Red Cross which is being held on Thursday, and as soon as possible after that the work of raising money for the building fund will be resumed.

A handsome donation to the building fund has been made to the building fund committee by the London Golf Club, as a result of the golf match held at the golf club grounds on Thanksgiving Day. The receipts of the match amounted to about $200, and this amount has been turned over to the Great War Veterans' Association.

Another gift for which the members are most grateful is a new Remington typewriter, which was presented to the association by Mrs. (Col. A. Campbell, for use of the secretary of the association. The committee in charge is preparing an excellent program for the smoker to be held in the rooms of the War Veterans on Tuesday evening next and a big crowd is expected.

"Liberal leaders from the various provinces who support conscription and vigorous prosecution of the war met here this week to consider the question of Union Government raised again by invitation of Sir Robert Borden to the western Liberal leaders As a result of a series of conferences the conclusion was unanimously reached that Union Government was an urgent necessity at this time to enable Canada to do her full share in the present crisis, and therefore it was our duty to accept the invitation of Sir Robert Borden to join him in forming such a Government I was asked by the leaders present to form one of the Liberal group entering the ministry.

one of the Liberal group entering the ministry.

"As I had advocated conscription and Union Government for many months I felt I could not refuse to join with other Liberal leaders in helping to form such a Government. The Union Government was formed today, and I must, therefore, relinquish my duties as leader of the Opposition in the Ontario Legislature. It is with the deepest personal regret that I find myself compelled to sever close personal relations which have existed between us in the Legislature.

"I shall always appreciate your loyal co-operation and support, and I am confident the Liberal party in the Legislature, under such new leader as you may choose, will continue to render a large public and patriotic service to the province. I shall follow with the deepest personal interest the future of my former colleagues, and I trust the warm personal relations which have existed between us may be continued in the future."

AILSA CRAIG, Oct. 15.-Farmers hereabouts are securing fine prices for their livestock, and local representatives of the big Chicago, Montreal and Toronto packing houses are kept busy making purchases. Ten carloads of cattle were shipped from here last Wednesday and 85 carloads more will be sent out in a few days. Allsa Craig is located in the heart of the best cattle district in Western Ontario, and since the outbreak of war the cattle-raising industry has advanced rapidly until now the majority of farmers are stock raisers.

The total value of the ten carloads shipped last week and the 35 to go shortly is about $135,000.
