SINKS IN MUDOF MARSH

Foreigner Drowns Under Strange Circumstances-Police Make Two Sunday Raids -

HAMILTON, July 12.—(Special.)-George Smodeck, a Hungarian, 25 years of age, met a horrible death this even-ing. He stripped and waded into the Dundas Marsh, near the high level bridge. After walking out where the water was only 4 fet deep his feet sank into the mud and he could not free himself. The more he struggled the sank so that the water came over his head and he was drowned. No one was present, but his clothes, which were found on the bank, created a suspicion that an accident had taken place. The police were called, and they found the bedy still in an upright position, with the legs sunk deep in the mud. It was with great difficulty that the body was Sergis. Moore and Bainbridge headed a raid this afternoon on Joseph Atlier's place, 103 South John-street. They arrested him on the charge of keeping a gaming place, and they also placed the following under arrest on the charge of gambling on the Lord's Day: Max Brower, Toronto; Sam Tottenburg, 194 Scuth John-street; Davis Mogletsky, 134 West Cannon-street; S. That the crusade against gambling is on again in dead earnest is shown by the fact that the police made another raid on a backyard on King-street, just east of Ferguson-avenue. No arrests were made, but the names of all present were taken.
