UNIONIST GAINS IN COUNTIES MAY GIVE IRISH PARTY CONTROL

In Any Event the Liberal Government is Returned Without a Convincing Mandate From People.

UNIONIST GAINS
 YESTERDAY WERE
 15; TO DATE 71

The Standing
 The status of the parties, according to the returns received up to date:
 UNIONISTS 163 71
 LIBERALS 137 12
 LABORITES 25 2
 NATIONALISTS 53 1
 The returns received during the day from 58 seats, of which 56 were polled Wednesday and 12 on Thursday, show the following results:
 LABORITES 7
 Thirteen of the Liberalist gains were in county seats, one in Scotland and one in Wales.
 If the Unionist gain of 22 of the 168 remaining seats, the government will be dependent upon the votes of the Nationalists to legislate.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—(Associated Press).—Elections were held to-day for 47 seats, one in London, three in English provincial boros, 26 in English counties, eight in Scotland, three in Wales and six in Ireland. Reports from 15 of these were received tonight.

The old-fashioned country people, with their rock-ribbed conservatism, their reverence for the nobility and their prejudice against the new-fangled socialism, were heard from, and they gave a decided boost to Conservative stock.

To-night the Unionists everywhere have taken cheer. The atonal Liberal Club, which has been the centre of Liberal activity, has a less jubilant atmosphere than at any time since the election began.

The Liberal Government will return to power with a less convincing mandate for its policies from the country than it counted upon. If the present tendency prevails among the remainder of the voters the next few days, its allies, the Laborites and Nationalists, will practically hold the balance of power, and the Irish party particularly will be in a position to dictate legislation.

Counties Stick to Peers.
 The proposals to reform the house of lords counted strongly among the country people, perhaps more strongly than did tariff reform. Scotland and Wales where non-conformists abound, stand by the Liberal party, but the counties have given general and even Unionist gains, which have wiped out the small Liberal majorities in most of the doubtful boros.

London's last boros gave its verdict in favor of a Unionist, Westminster re-elected W. L. A. B. Burdett-Coutts, with his majority nearly doubled. The metropolis has 34 Unionists, 28 Liberalist and two Laborites, whereas in 1906 there were 38 Liberales elected in London, 21 Unionists and three Laborites.

The popular vote in 1906 was:
 Unionists, 258,167; Liberales, 258,810; Laborites, 10,000.
Henniker Heaton Returned.
 J. Henniker Heaton, the "father of penny postage," retained his Cambridge seat by only 21 votes, having an independent Unionist competing for the party's support. Sir James H. Dalzell, proprietor of the Reynolds Newspaper, keeps his Scottish seat for the Liberales, by a largely increased majority.

Arthur H. Lee, formerly military attaché of the British embassy at Washington, retains his seat as a Unionist for the south Farnham division of Hampshire.

John R. Spender Clay, Unionist, non-in-law of Waldorf Astor, defeated the late Liberal member, P. Hodges.
 The right Hon. Herbert Louis Samuel and secretary of the Home Office, was returned in Yorkshire, north riding, Cleveland division.

The Right Hon. A. Ure, attorney-general who has been the most severely attacked candidate in the campaign since Mr. Balfour denounced him as a liar, for questioning whether the Conservatives would maintain the old age pensions, was endorsed by his Liberalist constituents by a strong vote.

Left Jones, Liberal leader of the extreme temperance party and largely responsible for the recent Beer Bill, was defeated in the Appleby division of Westmorland, and the "trade" rejoiced.

SHORT LIFE FOR NEW GOVERNMENT

(Special Cable to The World.)
 LONDON, Jan. 20.—The most critical part of the contest is over.
 The great centres of population have spoken, and have declared unmistakably against any immediate remodeling of the fiscal system. The county constituencies are now voting. Their prepossession is invariably Unionist, turning more upon the personal claims of candidates, and local considerations than on political principles, and there are many gains to the Unionists.

The new government's tenure of office will be but short, as Ireland strongly resents the Liberal version of the proposed legislation for that country, as just disclosed by the Liberal whip and by Mr. Asquith.

Unionists have received a valuable accession of members having oratorical and administrative ability. Both parties have lost many of their active members, two of the less brilliant ministers having gone into retirement, while various lesser lights have been extinguished, probably more to their personal sorrow than that of the party leaders.

The Unionist party will be strong enough to prevent Liberales from claiming a mandate to accomplish more than a moderate measure of constitutional reconstruction.

The position of the Liberal party is increasingly interesting, and their embarrassments may lead to sensational developments, directly the new parliament assembles.

To the great Dominion and other self-governing colonies, the time is opportune to vivify the best imperial practical ideals, and to presently realize the same to the benefit of the constituent parts and of the whole empire.

Hamar Greenwood's services to the empire are universally recognized, and Liberal ministers and the party greatly regret the temporary loss of his services in parliament.

JAMES HORACE DOUGLAS.

Liberal Loss of 25 Will Give Nationalists Control

With the British elections at their present stage, the great question is absorbing attention is the possibility of the government commanding an absolute majority in the house of commons.

This, which, after Tuesday's results, seemed well within the limits of feasibility, was rendered extremely doubtful—even unlikely, after the publication on Thursday morning of the county pollings, showing, as they did, a further Unionist gain of eighteen seats.

At the time of writing there are 250 constituencies still to hear from in England, Wales and Scotland, and the present strength of the Liberal and Labor parties is 163. To command one more than half the house (excluding the Speaker), 335 seats must be secured, so that the government must retain 172 seats.

Of the 250 constituencies there are 186 in England, represented in the last parliament by 140 Liberales and Laborites and 46 Unionists.
 There are 19 in Wales, all Liberal, and 45 in Scotland—38 Liberales and 7 Unionists.

If the government lose more than 25 seats of those still to report, the Irish Nationalists will hold the balance of power.

Judging from the recent returns, this appears to be the probable outcome of the election.

The pollings still to take place include:

"LOCKING THE DOOR"

WILL DOMINION STEEL REPEAT HOCKING IRON?

Both Much Alike, and Tumble in New York Stock Starts Canadian Investors Thinking.

The episode in connection with Hocking Iron on the New York Stock Exchange on Wednesday has led to enquiries as to whether there is similar danger in regard to the Dominion Steel. These securities are somewhat alike in that both have been operating in both of them.

Hocking Iron a year ago sold at $19, was later carried to the extreme of $32; from this it has dropped 70 points.
 Dominion Steel a year ago sold around $19; not long ago it was put up to 72 1/2, on the Toronto and Montreal exchanges. In the case of Hocking Iron the common capitalization is seven millions, and in Dominion Steel twenty millions.

The incentive for the extreme advance in Dominion Iron was the proposed incorporation of that company with Dominion Coal, details of which are now awaited. The financial interests acting for this consolidation of the two big Canadian companies are said to be of the strongest character, although it is believed that one institution originally heavily interested in Dominion Iron has taken advantage of the record high prices to unload holdings.

One Toronto broker who has been active in the amalgamation is rumored to have cleaned up a million dollars thereby, but it is understood that this is only on paper pending the distribution of the new stock in the Canadian and London markets.

COAL AT PORT ARTHUR
 Deposit of Good Kind Found in City Limits.

PORT ARTHUR, Jan. 20.—(Special).— The discovery of a vein of anthracite coal on Dufferin-street, inside the city limits, has created considerable excitement. It looks as if numbers of tons, at least, could be taken out and used by the contractor on the excavation for his forge, with which to sharpen drills and tools. Some has been taken to neighboring houses with good results.

The vein runs north and south and is similar to deposits uncovered at Rossport.

 Guelph Man Arrested at Toronto Hotel

Charged with obtaining $150 by false ward Charles Whittington, 40 years of age, a resident of Guelph, was arrested at the Grand Central Hotel last night by Detective Newton, at the request of the chief constable of that city. In addition to this he was alleged to have stolen a quantity of jewelry and a fur overcoat from people in Guelph. He came down from there on last night's train.

Street Railway Making
 Thousands of Converts
 To Public Ownership

"A plebiscite on the 'tube' proposition was taken three weeks ago, the result being an overwhelming majority recommended in its favor. The feelings of our citizens on this question having been thus plainly shown, I can only conclude that this feeling will become more acute the longer the present unspeakable conditions continue.

"As I am opposed to the general principle of 'municipal ownership,' except to meet special conditions, I feel confident that the action of the Toronto Street Railway Co. in making thousands of converts to 'municipal ownership' is worthy of the attention of other corporations, who, recognizing their obligations to the public, are trying to act up to these obligations, and who will suffer serious loss should there be a sudden turn of the people toward 'public ownership,' caused by this wholesale conversion."

—From the address of J. P.
 Watson, retiring president Toronto Board of Trade at annual meeting.

 THREAT OF MERCHANTS

Association Secretary Says His Executive is Influencing Legisla-

HAMILTON, Jan. 20.—(Special).—E.
 M. Trower, Toronto, Dominion secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association, this evening addressed a joint meeting of the retail merchants of Hamilton and Brantford, and made the statement that the governor-general was a stockholder in a large English concern that would benefit by the co-operative bill now before the Dominion Parliament.

He said that his excellency had been using his influence to get the bill passed, and that the association had written to him saying that unless he considered to interfere they would complain to the King and ask for the recall of his excellency.

3000 IN QUEBEC CALL FOR VOTE ON NAVY

Henri Bourassa Delivers a Strong Address at Montreal Against Proposal for Canadian Fleet.

MONTREAL, Jan. 20.—(Special).—At the conclusion of a strong speech by Henri Bourassa, in the Monument National Hall to-night, a gathering of nearly 3000 people unanimously adopted resolutions concerning the government's naval measure, and demanding that parliament should take no action until the will of the electorate had been ascertained.

Mr. Bourassa, who delivered a forcible speech, utterly condemned the measure, attacked Sir Wilfrid Laurier for attempting to pass such a measure, and denounced Mr. Borden for aiding him. The large gathering warmly applauded through.

Mr. Bourassa vigorously attacked the measure, saying that it would entail enormous expenses upon the country, and he claimed that Sir Wilfrid Laurier's estimate of the cost was altogether astray. This was not surprising, as Sir Wilfrid was not very strong at figures, having estimated the cost of the Grand Trunk Pacific at $13,000-000, when, according to competent authorities, it would cost 200 millions.

Mr. Bourassa further accused Sir Wilfrid Laurier as violating the rights of parliament and of the Canadian people, and he declared that Mr. Borden was aiding him.

Quotes Sir Wm. White.
 While he respected Sir Wilfrid Laurier's views, he would put against them the opinion of such men as Sir William White, and quoted from him to show that the cost of naval construction was over on the increase.

Regarding the constitutional aspect of the question, Mr. Bourassa declared that the ministerial papers were misleading the public when they claimed that the fleet was for the protection of the Canadian coast. He quoted from Hon. Mr. McKeen, first lord of the admiralty, to show that such a fleet as proposed could not act in harmony with the British admiralty, and also quoted Sir Wilfrid Laurier as saying that when England was at war, Canada was at war, Mr. Bourassa added that Great Britain did not need Canada's help, and did not desire it.

Mr. Bourassa ridiculed the so-called German peril, and again quoted from Sir William White to show that there was nothing in the air, and that if there was such a peril, England had brought it on herself by a century of diplomatic mistakes.

No Danger from U. S.
 Referring to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's statement that the United States was the only possible enemy, Mr. Bourassa declared that if England got into war with the United States, she would not be able to defend Canada, but as the United States could not and would not make war on us, such an expense as involved in the proposed naval measure would be both useless and ridiculous.

Mr. Bourassa charged Sir Wilfrid Laurier with having violated his previous anti-imperial declarations, comparing recent statements made by Sir Wilfrid and Mr. Brodeur with previous statements made by Sir Wilfrid.

The question, however, decided, was of such importance that it should be submitted to the people before they were bound for all the time.

TWO YOUNG VICTIMS OF BOYS' CRUEL OUTRAGE.
 At least two little girls were made the victims of a cruel outrage perpetrated by a group of rowdy boys who attended the annual supper at the Riverside Presbyterian Church last night fled into the street. A group of boys, who were singing had gone into the church and sat at the back until the conclusion of the festivities.

As the little ones popped out, one of the faces of a number of the little girls, who fled screaming back to the church, taken back to the church where it was found that her eyes were badly inflamed, and Beatrice McNaughton, 438 Pape-avenue, was another to suffer, but was Clark McNaughton.

The boy suspected of throwing the pepper was caught by those about, but was later released when he protested his innocence. Rev. J. A. Miller, pastor of the church, said last night that he knew who the culprit was and would have the matter investigated by the police.

Tricks to Sell Hired Horse.
 George W. Wingate, 143 Victoria-street, 35 years, a laborer, was arrested last night, charged with theft of a horse from William Brakey, 44 Edward-street. He had hired the horse to move a trunk and was found later in East Front-street, trying to sell the animal.

Got $110 by Fraud.
 Charged with obtaining $110 by fraud from a local H. Robertson, 155 Wilton-street, mining engineer, was arrested yesterday by Detective Tipton.
 It is alleged that while his option on certain mining properties had expired he had secured the money as a deposit on purchase from Robertson.
