Major R.-C. Cockburn, the soldjers' win-the-war candidate for East York, at a well-attended meeting of the East York Returned Scidiers and Kin Alliance last evening in D.an Hall, on Rhodes avenue. Major Cockburn told his audience that he had always been a Conservative, but if he was to run that he had to go by the beard. "For 21 go a Ottawa," he told them, "it must be without any party tie We want conscription and we want it enforced in every province in the Do-minion. Then to back up the boys who are going to France to reinforce those already there we must back them up with the money, and to get that money there is only one way, conscript it." Loud cheers greeted this statement. "That line in Planders," continued the speaker. "must be reinforced, and if the money and the men are not coming voluntarily, then they must be conscripted." He spoke on the injustice that was being done the imperial reservists and insisted on a reconstruction of the spearation allow-ance. "This country, which has recog-nized them as citizens, should make their pensions and separation allowances up to the same as that of the Canadians. If they can do that in Canada," he said. Would Take over Fund. Senking of the patriotic fund he ad-woated the government taking this over and adding to it by taxation.
