

BRITISH NEWS.

HOUSE OF COMMONS—JUNE 2.

The attendance of Peers was very good, the whole of the House being present.

HOUSE OF COMMONS—MONDAY, JUNE 2.

Lord Althorp having been called upon by the Speaker to read the resolutions proposed by the Commission...

Mr. Ward admitted that the Commission embraced every point; but unless it were completed with the certainty of the noble lord's proposition...

Lord Althorp again arose, and said in explanation, that whatever he said in the House might be taken to refer to the Commission...

Mr. Humble rose and said that he regretted he could not agree with the noble Lord's proposition...

Lord Althorp again arose, and said in explanation, that whatever he said in the House might be taken to refer to the Commission...

Lord Althorp again arose, and said in explanation, that whatever he said in the House might be taken to refer to the Commission...

Lord Althorp again arose, and said in explanation, that whatever he said in the House might be taken to refer to the Commission...

Lord Althorp again arose, and said in explanation, that whatever he said in the House might be taken to refer to the Commission...

Lord Althorp again arose, and said in explanation, that whatever he said in the House might be taken to refer to the Commission...

Lord Althorp again arose, and said in explanation, that whatever he said in the House might be taken to refer to the Commission...

Lord Althorp again arose, and said in explanation, that whatever he said in the House might be taken to refer to the Commission...

Lord Althorp again arose, and said in explanation, that whatever he said in the House might be taken to refer to the Commission...

Lord Althorp again arose, and said in explanation, that whatever he said in the House might be taken to refer to the Commission...

Lord Althorp again arose, and said in explanation, that whatever he said in the House might be taken to refer to the Commission...

Lord Althorp again arose, and said in explanation, that whatever he said in the House might be taken to refer to the Commission...

incalculably known in the city—who could long go to have shrunk from public life.

The Cabinet, then, has been broken up, and the Government is now a coalition of the various parties...

From the London Courier of May 23.—Ministerial paper.

The General Assembly of the Church of Scotland has made a most important change in the system of patronage...

From the N. York Journal of Commerce, July 11. DISGRACEFUL PROCEEDINGS.

After finishing their work at the Bowers Theatre on Wednesday night, the mob in a very excited state repaired to the residence of Lewis Tappan...

Several colored men in going home from their places of employment down town, fell into the hands of the rioters, and were shamefully beaten.

More DISGRACEFUL PROCEEDINGS. Friday morning, 1 o'clock.

We are disappointed. Instead of the quiet we had anticipated for our citizens, they have been interrupted all night...

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

The public mind was extremely feverish yesterday—more so than on any previous day.

SATURDAY MORNING, June 12.—2 o'clock. DREADFUL RIOTS.

The worst misdeeds of yesterday have been recalled. For five hours, there has been the roar of a great battle.

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

The public mind was extremely feverish yesterday—more so than on any previous day.

SATURDAY MORNING, June 12.—2 o'clock. DREADFUL RIOTS.

The worst misdeeds of yesterday have been recalled. For five hours, there has been the roar of a great battle.

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

The public mind was extremely feverish yesterday—more so than on any previous day.

about to take place. By the new regulation there will be a considerable saving of expense...

The General Assembly of the Church of Scotland has made a most important change in the system of patronage...

From the N. York Journal of Commerce, July 11. DISGRACEFUL PROCEEDINGS.

After finishing their work at the Bowers Theatre on Wednesday night, the mob in a very excited state repaired to the residence of Lewis Tappan...

Several colored men in going home from their places of employment down town, fell into the hands of the rioters, and were shamefully beaten.

More DISGRACEFUL PROCEEDINGS. Friday morning, 1 o'clock.

We are disappointed. Instead of the quiet we had anticipated for our citizens, they have been interrupted all night...

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

The public mind was extremely feverish yesterday—more so than on any previous day.

SATURDAY MORNING, June 12.—2 o'clock. DREADFUL RIOTS.

The worst misdeeds of yesterday have been recalled. For five hours, there has been the roar of a great battle.

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

The public mind was extremely feverish yesterday—more so than on any previous day.

SATURDAY MORNING, June 12.—2 o'clock. DREADFUL RIOTS.

The worst misdeeds of yesterday have been recalled. For five hours, there has been the roar of a great battle.

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

The public mind was extremely feverish yesterday—more so than on any previous day.

SATURDAY MORNING, June 12.—2 o'clock. DREADFUL RIOTS.

The worst misdeeds of yesterday have been recalled. For five hours, there has been the roar of a great battle.

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

about to take place. By the new regulation there will be a considerable saving of expense...

The General Assembly of the Church of Scotland has made a most important change in the system of patronage...

From the N. York Journal of Commerce, July 11. DISGRACEFUL PROCEEDINGS.

After finishing their work at the Bowers Theatre on Wednesday night, the mob in a very excited state repaired to the residence of Lewis Tappan...

Several colored men in going home from their places of employment down town, fell into the hands of the rioters, and were shamefully beaten.

More DISGRACEFUL PROCEEDINGS. Friday morning, 1 o'clock.

We are disappointed. Instead of the quiet we had anticipated for our citizens, they have been interrupted all night...

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

The public mind was extremely feverish yesterday—more so than on any previous day.

SATURDAY MORNING, June 12.—2 o'clock. DREADFUL RIOTS.

The worst misdeeds of yesterday have been recalled. For five hours, there has been the roar of a great battle.

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

The public mind was extremely feverish yesterday—more so than on any previous day.

SATURDAY MORNING, June 12.—2 o'clock. DREADFUL RIOTS.

The worst misdeeds of yesterday have been recalled. For five hours, there has been the roar of a great battle.

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

The public mind was extremely feverish yesterday—more so than on any previous day.

SATURDAY MORNING, June 12.—2 o'clock. DREADFUL RIOTS.

The worst misdeeds of yesterday have been recalled. For five hours, there has been the roar of a great battle.

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

about to take place. By the new regulation there will be a considerable saving of expense...

The General Assembly of the Church of Scotland has made a most important change in the system of patronage...

From the N. York Journal of Commerce, July 11. DISGRACEFUL PROCEEDINGS.

After finishing their work at the Bowers Theatre on Wednesday night, the mob in a very excited state repaired to the residence of Lewis Tappan...

Several colored men in going home from their places of employment down town, fell into the hands of the rioters, and were shamefully beaten.

More DISGRACEFUL PROCEEDINGS. Friday morning, 1 o'clock.

We are disappointed. Instead of the quiet we had anticipated for our citizens, they have been interrupted all night...

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

The public mind was extremely feverish yesterday—more so than on any previous day.

SATURDAY MORNING, June 12.—2 o'clock. DREADFUL RIOTS.

The worst misdeeds of yesterday have been recalled. For five hours, there has been the roar of a great battle.

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

The public mind was extremely feverish yesterday—more so than on any previous day.

SATURDAY MORNING, June 12.—2 o'clock. DREADFUL RIOTS.

The worst misdeeds of yesterday have been recalled. For five hours, there has been the roar of a great battle.

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

The public mind was extremely feverish yesterday—more so than on any previous day.

SATURDAY MORNING, June 12.—2 o'clock. DREADFUL RIOTS.

The worst misdeeds of yesterday have been recalled. For five hours, there has been the roar of a great battle.

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

THE OBSERVER.

about to take place. By the new regulation there will be a considerable saving of expense...

The General Assembly of the Church of Scotland has made a most important change in the system of patronage...

From the N. York Journal of Commerce, July 11. DISGRACEFUL PROCEEDINGS.

After finishing their work at the Bowers Theatre on Wednesday night, the mob in a very excited state repaired to the residence of Lewis Tappan...

Several colored men in going home from their places of employment down town, fell into the hands of the rioters, and were shamefully beaten.

More DISGRACEFUL PROCEEDINGS. Friday morning, 1 o'clock.

We are disappointed. Instead of the quiet we had anticipated for our citizens, they have been interrupted all night...

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

The public mind was extremely feverish yesterday—more so than on any previous day.

SATURDAY MORNING, June 12.—2 o'clock. DREADFUL RIOTS.

The worst misdeeds of yesterday have been recalled. For five hours, there has been the roar of a great battle.

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

The public mind was extremely feverish yesterday—more so than on any previous day.

SATURDAY MORNING, June 12.—2 o'clock. DREADFUL RIOTS.

The worst misdeeds of yesterday have been recalled. For five hours, there has been the roar of a great battle.

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

The public mind was extremely feverish yesterday—more so than on any previous day.

SATURDAY MORNING, June 12.—2 o'clock. DREADFUL RIOTS.

The worst misdeeds of yesterday have been recalled. For five hours, there has been the roar of a great battle.

From the Journal of Commerce, July 12. PEACE OF THE CITY.

THE OBSERVER.