

RUSSIA TO CARRY EXILES BY AIRPLANE

Political Offenders to Be Taken to Island in Frozen North Sea

KEM, Northern Russia, Jan. 23.—Russia soon will inaugurate an aerial service between this port and Solovetsky island, in the frozen White Sea, for transporting political and other offenders against the Soviet State who have been exiled to Solovetsky monastery. Communication with the island has been carried on by sleighs over the frozen ice or by boat when the ice thaws in the spring.

Situated in the middle of the frozen White Sea, the island is one of the loneliest places in the world, and is the most dreaded prison in Soviet Russia. From the fifteenth century it was used by the Czar as a place of banishment for ecclesiastical, political and secular dignitaries.

"FIRE" WINS SEAT.

Paris, Jan. 23.—Brought into court on a charge of starting a riot, a suburban citizen asserted that he merely had shouted "Fire" in a crowded railway carriage so he could get a seat.

Yesterday In Parliament

IN THE COMMONS Friday's debate on the address in reply, brought out expressions of opinion from the three major parties and saw the end of the first week of the debate. F. Enfield, Liberal, St. James; A. U. G. Bury, Conservative, Edmonton East; F. W. Gershaw, Liberal, Medicine Hat, and H. G. Barber, Conservative, Fraser Valley, B. C. were the participants.

THE SENATE did not sit. The House meets again on Monday afternoon. F. P. Quinn, Conservative, has the floor.

SOLDIER GRAVES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Grave markers for American soldiers dead overseas will be of two designs—one a cross, the other a Star of David mounted on a shaft—the material of both to be white stone or marble. The commission on designs has just reported to the secretary of war, who concurs. The Star of David design is for the graves of soldiers of the Jewish faith.

FIND OLD TOWN.

KINGSTON, Ont., Jan. 23.—Excavations on a farm near here have resulted in the discovery of what is believed to be the foundations of the town of the old Roman town of Magna. The lines of the market house, town hall, or law courts, are clearly defined according to the surveyor who has carried on the work.

G. B. S. IS ANGRY.

MANCHESTER, Eng., Jan. 23.—George Bernard Shaw hates the movies and will not permit any of his plays to be filmed. Here is the reason his friends give: Recently while attending a production of his "Saint Joan," he was horrified to see a moving picture advertisement flashed on the curtain in one of the intermissions.

ALOIS GOES, TOO.
PRESSBURG, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 23.—Alois Bous has disappeared, and police fear he has killed himself. Bous despised because meals which once tickled the palates of kings failed to appeal to the people. He was once chief of Edward VII., Franz Josef I. and Peter I. of Serbia. A sign left on his cafe door said: "Those who relished my food are gone. I must go, too."

CAT GETS THERE.

FRANKFORT, Ind., Jan. 23.—A pet cat belonging to Dr. Margaret Bowen, of this city, hiked recently from Chattanooga, Tenn., to Frankfort. Dr. Bowen lost the cat on her way home from Florida.

IT CLOSED HIS EYES.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—A motorist brought into a police court at Marylebone recently for failing to stop his car at a police signal declared he was yawning and couldn't see the officer.

THANK YOU TABBY.

HOBART, Ont., Jan. 23.—A dog chased Elmer Brown's cat into the latter's antique store here. The cat plunged headfirst into a small-necked vase which had to be broken before Tabby could be extricated. Elmer found $3,000 in gold in the vase he didn't know he had.

UNIQUE - MONDAY

The Story of a Girl With An Unconquerable Soul!
Life to her was just one grand adventure in which anything could happen.
Fate reared her in luxury, only to try to make her a drudge.
Here was a gay, adventurous spirit, that was never to die, though it often led her into trackless wastes. But always that dauntless spirit triumphed over fate.
Even in dreary commonplace she found joy and beauty.
Life has no weapons against a woman like this.
