Vets Trim St. Peter's.
The G. W. V. A. team, playing snappy ball and hitting well, defeated St. Peter's last evening in an exhibition game by a score of 5 to 1. The St. Peter's nine seemed unable to solve the baffling delivery of Kirkpatrick, and only secured three hits, while their opponents garnered nine. In addition the Saints had a total of eight errors, the majority of which were costly. The St. Peter's used twelve men and only an error by Moore saved them from a shut-out.

ALLIES AND TURKS AT LAST OF THE BIG PROBLEMS
Lausanne, June 1.—The Allied leaders and Ismet Pasha today discussed the great remaining problem of the Near East conference, the payment of interest on the Ottoman debt. Turkey desires to be relieved of the obligation of paying the coupons in foreign currency, asserting that such payment would be tantamount to financial ruin. No solution has yet been reached, but there is good hope that a compromise may soon be effected.

CRIGUI HAS GOOD RECORD IN WAR
New York, June 1.—(Associated Press)—Eugene Crigui, of France, and the featherweight boxing champion of Europe, who will meet Johnny Kilbane, world champion, in a 15-round title contest at the Polo Grounds tomorrow, has had his greatest pugilistic success since the war, although handicapped by a reconstructed jaw.

The little Frenchman, now 30 years old, has been fighting since he was 15. Before the war he engaged in more than 100 contests in which he had varied success. He was a clever boxer, having been trained in the English mould, but failed to rise higher than the near-champions because of the lack of punching power.

Then the war broke out and Crigui went to the front. At Verdun the left side of his jaw was shot away. Many months he lay in hospitals, during which time the rib of a sheep was grafted in his face. He was discharged from the hospital as unfit for military duty. After the close of hostilities he went back to pugilism. He turned from boxing to fighting and had marked success.

While he never actually has been knocked out, Crigui has failed to go the route on three occasions. In 1914 he retired in the twelfth round of a bout with Charley Lecloux, French bantam, but last year evened the score by knocking out his countryman in one round. In 1919, against Tommy Nield, English featherweight champion, Crigui went nineteen rounds, refusing to go on for the twentieth after claiming that a low blow had dislocated a leg tendon. Later the same year Noble held Crigui to a draw, while at London the Frenchman refused to continue in a fight with Pat Moore, the American, when his claim of foul was disallowed in the fourteenth round of a twenty round match.

Last year Crigui won the European feather title, knocking out Arthur Wyns, of Belgium, and Billy Matthews, of England, both claimants of the championship. Nield took the count in the twelfth and Matthews in the seventeenth round.

other things added in keeping down the Reds, but within the last week or so they seem to have found themselves. In winning their third straight victory over Chicago yesterday, 3 to 2, Cincinnati advanced to fifth place, two points within St. Louis' insecure notch in the first division.

Luque, a Cuban twirler whose career has been marked by a devastating jinx, did the pitching yesterday, making his fifth victory in six starts this season, his best year so far.

Brooklyn kept on its winning form, trouncing Boston 5 to 2, and keeping ahead of the St. Louis Cardinals, who, facing advancing teams on both sides within St. Louis' immediate enemy, and won 4 to 1. The Brooklyn contest was notable for Marquard's effectiveness against Zack Wheat, leading National League batter, who failed to hit for the first time in twenty-one games.

Jack Bentley, whose effectiveness at times has caused
