Death Claims Brilliant Leader of Irish Party

Redmond's Heart Fails After Severe Operation

CHIEF FOR QUARTER CENTURY

Had Been in Parliamentary Life for 37 Years and Had Done Much for Ireland's Cause -Strengly With England in The World War

London, Mar. 6-John E. Redmond, Irish Nationalist leader, died this morning.

Mr. Redmond, who underwent an operation in London on last Friday, passed a fair day yesterday and apparently was maintaining the progress shown on Monday. He passed away peacefully at 7.45 o'clock this morning. Death was due to heart failure, following the recent operation.

The Irish convention, which had been supported by Mr. Redmond, yesterday adopted a message of sympathy in which an earnest wish was expressed for his early and complete recovery.

The physicians attending Mr. Redmond issued the following announcement: "We regret to announce that John Redmond died at 7.45 this morning.

Owing to several attacks of illness a ration and for some days satisfactory progress was maintained. After a fairly comfortable day on Tuesday heart failure supervened during the night and after a few hours Mr. Redmond passed

King and Premier Shocked

The news of the death of the Nationalist leader brought messages of sorrow and regret from all sections of the comand regret from all sections of the community. King George, when he was informed of the event, was deeply shocked and expressed his profound regret. Premier Lloyd George was similarly moved when he learned the news. The premier will move an appropriate resolution in the House of Commons.

This will enable the premier and former Premier Asquith, who have been life-long supporters of home rule, and other leaders to pay tribute to the memory of Mr. Redmond, who had himself during his long parliamentary career
