

PATHOLOGY.

Examiner, - - - ANDREW MACPHAIL, B.A., M.D.

1. What are the processes involved in the "healing of a wound."
2. Classify Tumours in detail.
3. Mention the retrograde changes to which tissues are subject.
4. Discuss the pathology of chronic nephritis in reference to the circulation.
5. a.—Illustrate by diagrams the centres in the brain, and explain the results of a hemorrhage in the Rolandic area of the left side. b. Explain the causes of "crossed paralysis."

NELSON GOLD MEDAL EXAMINATION

Examiner, - - - JAMES PERRIGO, M.D.

1. Describe in detail the operation of Nephrectomy, and under what circumstances would it be advisable.
2. Give causes and symptoms of stricture of the male urethra, the most frequent location of the same, and treatment.
3. Give Dupuytren's classification of burns and mention the complications which may arise, with treatment of deformity which may result.
4. Give the signs indicative of complete surgical anaesthesia.
- (b) Give toxic symptoms of æther and chloroform, and treatment which you would adopt.
5. Give the varieties of aneurysm, and the different methods of treatment which may be employed.
6. Mention the coverings of oblique inguinal hernia, symptoms of strangulation, and treatment.