

the Presbytery, continues to labor in these places, and dispensed the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper twice, by the authority of the Presbytery, at Nerepis, where, on the first occasion, twenty-six and on the second thirty-four communicants were admitted to partake of that ordinance.

2. The Rev. Neil McKay, formerly minister of Murray Harbour, P. E. I., being called by the congregation of St. David's, in St. John, and the call having been sustained by the Presbytery, was duly inducted into the pastoral charge of St. David's congregation on the 29th May last.

3. The Presbytery adopted overtures, (1) On Instrumental Music in the worship of God. (2) On Union with Presbyterian Church of the Lower Provinces, with modification, which is also sent in.

4. The Presbytery appointed the following members to act on Committees. [See list of committees.]

5. The Rev. Mr. Gray reported at Presbytery meeting, that progress is being made in the erection of a new church at Sussex Valley, near Railway Station, to accommodate about 300, and that he expects it will be ready for public worship on the 1st January next.

W. ALVES, Py. Clerk.

It was then moved and agreed that the Report of the Presbytery of Saint John be received and approved.

The Report of the Presbytery of St. Stephen was also read, when the hour of adjournment having come, the Moderator closed the Meeting with the Benediction.

Report of St. Stephen Presbytery.

THIRD SESSION.

Woodstock, 19th June, 1862, }
8 o'clock, P. M. }

Synod met pursuant to adjournment, and was opened with prayer. Minutes were read and sustained. Report of the Presbytery of St. Stephen was again read.

The Presbytery of St. Stephen begs respectfully to report to the Synod as follows:

The Presbytery have had six meetings. The Rev. William Millen, now Moderator of the Presbytery, has been inducted over the congregations of Bocabec and Waweig, and the congregation of Baillie has received occasional supplies from the Presbytery of St. Stephen. A district of missionary labor assigned to the Rev. Wm.