The Governorship.

The Globe, Agriculturist and some other papers are anxious to know who is to be the next Governor of New Brunswick. We hope Mr. Tilley will remain where he is Some persons, however, pretend to know that he has been offered a second term and declined to accept it. If Mr. Tilley has determined upon taking the course which these same authorities declare he will take in Dominion politics we believe he will regret it and hundreds of others who, like ourselves, were always his political friends and admirers, are of the same way of thinking. We have yet to be convinced, however, that Mr. Tilley has given any person authority to speak for him in reference to the course he intends to pursue.

We are glad to find the News in an enquiring frame of mind. It seems to have become sensible of the fact that it behaved very improperly in prejudging Hon. Messrs. Kelly and Young when they were sorecklessly accused of wrongs doing by Mr. O'Leary, and after intended only carry weight with them, says:

The Reason Viry.—It is stated, on retty good authority, that the secret of Mr. Mitchell's saying so many foolish the present Government is one thing is at Ottawa lies in the fact that it behaved very improperly in prejudging Hon. Messrs. Kelly and Young when they were sorecklessly accused of wrongs doing by Mr. O'Leary, and after intimating that Mr. Brown's statements should not carry weight with them, says:

We ask the Advance to inform the public whose money built the Chatham mill.

Inspector's connection with the House teched only from the fall of 1875 to the summer of 1877, covering but one working season."

As the session draws to a close we cannot help contrasting the end with the beginning. At the outset the Opposition seemed in full feather. But as one after seemed in the contrast of the salmon on the salmon of the

Mr. Kelly never denied that Mr. Brown promised to deduct this 20%, or $13,000 for the benefit of the Company, so the News deliberately or ignorantly misstates a fact abundantly proved. The News' 'mystery of the $13,000' is, therefore, no mystery at all, especially as Mr. Brown himself openly credits the 20% or $13,000 in his account with 20% or $13,000 in his account with the Chatham Railway Company.
